Soldiers of Christ, arise,
And put your armor on;
Strong in the strength which God supplies
Through His eternal Son.

From strength to strength go on,
Wrestle, and fight, and pray;
Tread all the powers of darkness down,
And win the well-fought day.

Strong in the Lord of Hosts,
And in His mighty power;
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.

That having all things done,
And all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome, through Christ alone,
And stand complete at last.

Stand then in His great might,
With all His strength endued;
And take to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God.

To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit ever blest,
The One in Three, the Three in One,
Be endless praise addressed.

Lord of our life, and God of our salvation,
Star of our night, and hope of every nation,
Hear and receive Thy Church's supplication,
Lord God Almighty.

See round Thine Ark the hungry billows curling !
See how Thy foes their banners are unfurling !
Lord, while their darts envenomed they are hurling,
Thou canst preserve us.

Lord, Thou canst help when earthly armor faileth ;
Lord, Thou canst save when deadly sin assaileth ;
Lord, o'er Thy Church nor death nor hell prevailleth,
Grant us Thy peace, Lord !

Grant us Thy help till backward they are driven ;
Grant them Thy truth, that they may be forgiven ;
Grant peace on earth, and after we have striven,
Peace in Thy heaven. Amen.

Offertory Anthem Barnby

Abide with me : fast falls the eventide ;
The darkness deepens ; Lord, with me abide :
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day ;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away,
Change and decay in all around I see ;
O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour,
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power ?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be ?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless :
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness ;
Where is death's sting ? where, grave, thy victory ?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes :
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies :
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee :
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice opprest.
I know not, O I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiance of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

Willcox

Te Deum in B Minor

Buck

Offertory Anthem

Kinder

Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice opprest.
I know not, O I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiancy of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

Who to dust gives life and feeling,
Who with one breath made the heavens,
At whose bidding this earth would vanish.
Who to nought can bring all kingdoms,
Who to dust can change a king,
Look upon us, we implore Thee,
And our hearts to Thee we'll bring.

Thou who makest faith more steadfast,
Thou who watchest while we're sleeping,
Thou in whom all hope is centered,
All our fates are in Thy keeping.
Thou Jehovah, guide of Israel,
Look upon us, our false pride banish,
Peace eternal Thou wilt give us,
Light supernal shed around.
He, who weeping seeks Thy pardon,
May at last in heaven be found.

Here by Babylon's wave,
Tho' heathen hands have bound us,
Tho' afar from our land
The pains of death surround us;
Zion! thy mem'ry still,
In our hearts we are keeping,
And still we turn to thee,
Our eyes all sad with weeping.

Lord, tho' the victor command—
In captivity sad and lowly,
How shall we raise Thy song so holy,
That we sung in our Fatherland?
Jerusalem, if we forget thee,
Let our hands remember not their pow'r!
Jerusalem, if we forget thee,
Let our tongues be silent from that hour!

Thro' our harps that we hung on the trees,
Goes the low wind, wearily moaning.
Mingles the sad note of the breeze,
With voice as sad of sigh and groaning.
When mad with wine our foe rejoices,
Then unto their altars they throng,
Loud for mirth then they call—A song!—
A song of Zion sing, lift up your voices!

Woe unto thee, Babylon, mighty city,
For the day of thy fall is nigh!
For thee no hope, for thee no pity,
Tho' loud thy wail riseth on high?
Then shalt thou, desolate, forsaken,
Be torn from thy fanes and thy thrones,
In that day shall thy babes be taken,
Taken and dashed against the stones!
Then unto thee, O Babylon, the mighty, be woe!

Hosanna in the highest!
Who is this that cometh from Edom? Who is this with dyed garments from Bozrah? This that is glorious in his apparel, traveling in the greatness of his strength.

I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.
Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me. I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; for the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

And when as Judge Thou drawest nigh,
The secrets of all hearts to try,
When sinners meet their awful doom,
And saints attain their heavenly home,
O let us not for evil past
Be driven from Thy face at last,
But with the blessed evermore
Behold and love Thee and adore. Amen.

O Holy night! the stars are brightly shining;
It is the night of our dear Saviour's birth!
Long lay the world in sin and error pining,
Till He appeared, and the soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices,
For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn!
Fall on your knees! Oh, hear the Angel voices!
O night divine! O night when Christ was born!

Truly He taught us to love one another;
His law is Love, and His Gospel is Peace;
Chains shall He break, for the slave is our brother,
And in His name all oppression shall cease.
Sweet hymn of joy in grateful chorus raise we,
Let all within us praise His holy name,
Christ is the Lord! then ever, ever praise we
His power and glory evermore proclaim!

Anc Dimittis

Offertory Anthem

Parker

It came upon the midnight clear.
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
Peace on the earth, good-will to men,
From heaven's all-gracious King;
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

O ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow!
Look now! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing;
Oh, rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world:
Above its sad and lonely plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its fabel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

For lo, the days are hastening on,
By prophets seen of old,
When with the ever-circling years,
Shall come the time foretold,
When the new heaven and earth shall own
The Prince of Peace their King,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing.

Processional Hymn 516

Barrington

Offertory Anthem

Kinder

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness, and lead us Thine aid;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where the infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on His cradle the dew-drops are shining,
Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore Him in slumber reclining;
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

Shall we not yield Him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gold would His favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor. Amen.

from Israel rise up; and dash in pieces princes and nations.

As bright the star of morning gleams,

On Quinquagesima Sunday, February 18th, in all the churches, there will be an offering for the Church Pension Fund. The Rector asks parishioners to keep this in mind. A committee of the Vestry has been busy for some time securing subscriptions. It is desired that everyone have a share in this great work.

Morning Prayer and Ante-Communion at Eleven o'Clock

Processional Hymn 520

Messiter

Te Deum in B minor

Buck

Offertory Anthem

Mendelssohn

(From "Christus")

When Jesus our Lord was born in Bethlehem, in the land of Judæa, behold, from the East to the city of Jerusalem there came wise men, and said :—Say, where is He born, the King of Judæa? For we have seen His star and are come to adore Him. There shall a star from Jacob come forth and a sceptre from Israel rise up; and dash in pieces princes and nations.

As bright the star of morning gleams,
So Jesus sheddeth glorious beams
Of light and consolation!
Thy Word, O Lord, radiance darting,
Truth imparting, gives salvation;
Thine be praise and adoration!

Recessional Hymn 518

Monk

Evening Prayer at Four o'Clock

Processional Hymn 584

Calkin

Magnificat

Anglican Chant

Anc Dimittis

Anglican Chant

Offertory Anthem

Allitsen

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear: the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid? Though an host of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid: and though there rose up war against me, yet will I put my trust in Him.

For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His tabernacle: yea, in the secret place of His dwelling shall He hide me, and set me up upon a rock of stone.

Magnificat

King Hall

Anc Dimittis

Offertory Anthem

Kinder

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness, and lend us Thine aid;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where the infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on His cradle the dew-drops are shining,
Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore Him in slumber reclining;
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

Shall we not yield Him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gold would His favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor. Amen.

Recessional Hymn 331

Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good

Over the fields of glory,
Over the jasper sea.

Safe in the arms of Jesus,
Safe from corroding care;

See, His banners go.

Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise!
Onward, etc.

Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!

Onward, then, ye people!
Join our happy throng!
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph song!
Glory, laud, and honor,
Unto Christ the King;
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing.
Onward, etc.

At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee;
On, then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory!

Processional Hymn 432

Le Jeune

Te Deum in F

Dykes

Offertory Anthem

Noble

Come, O Thou Traveller unknown,
Whom still I hold, but cannot see,
My company before is gone,
And I am left alone with Thee ;
With Thee all night I mean to stay,
And wrestle till the break of day.

Yield to me now for I am weak,
But confident in self-despair,
Speak to my heart in blessings, speak,
Be conquer'd by my instant prayer !
Speak, or Thou never hence shalt move,
And tell me if Thy Name is Love.

'Tis Love ! 'tis Love ! Thou died'st for me !
I hear Thy whisper in my heart !
The morning breaks, the shadows flee,
Pure universal Love Thou art !
To me, to all, Thy heart doth move,
Thy Nature and Thy Name is Love.

More love to Thee, O Christ !
More love to Thee !
Hear Thou the prayer I make
On bended knee ;
This is my earnest plea,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
My love to Thee !

Once earthly joy I craved,
Sought peace and rest :
Now Thee alone I seek ;
Give what is best ;
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee !
More love to Thee !

Then shall my latest breath
Whisper Thy praise ;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee !

Processional Hymn 580

Bunnett

Offertory Anthem

Gilchrist

Just as I am, without one plea,
But that Thy blood was shed for me,
And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To Thee, Whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, Thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down;
Now to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Before Thy Cross I'm kneeling,
In penitence bowed down,
Where Thou for us hast suffer'd
And worn the glorious crown.

On Calvary's Cross Thou'rt hanging,
Yet see I not Thy pain,
And not the nails' deep traces,
And not Thy blood's red stain.

The crown of thorns I see not Upon Thy brow entwined;
I see Thy arms outstretched
In love to all mankind.

Weary of earth, and laden with my sin,
I look at heaven and long to enter in:
But there no evil thing may find a home:
And yet I hear a voice that bids me
"Come."

The while I fain would tread the heavenly way.
Evil is ever with me day by day;
Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall,
"Repent, confess, thou shaft be loosed from all."

So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand
In the pure glory of that holy land?
Before the whiteness of that throne appear?
Yet there are hands stretched out to draw me near.

It is the voice of Jesus that I hear;
His are the hands stretched out to draw
me near.
And His the blood that can for all atone,
And set me faultless there before the throne.

Nought can I bring, dear Lord, for all I owe,
Yet let my full heart what it can bestow,
Like Mary's gift, let my devotion prove,
Forgiven greatly, how I greatly love.

Morning Prayer and Ante-Communion at Eleven o'Clock

Processional Hymn 360 Walch

Benedicite in G Kinder

Offertory Anthem Gounod

There is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

He died that we might be forgiv'n,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heav'n,
Saved by His precious blood.

We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

Just as I am, without one plea,
But that Thy blood was shed for me,
And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To Thee, Whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, Thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down;
Now to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Offertory Anthem

Chadwick

Into the woods my Master went
Clean forspent ;
Into the woods my Master came,
Forspent with love and shame.
But the olives they were not blind to Him,
The little gray leaves were kind to Him,
The thorn-tree had a mind to Him,
When into the woods He came.

Out of the woods my Master went,
And He was well content ;
Out of the woods my Master came,
Content with death and shame.
When death and shame would woo Him last,
From under the trees they drew Him last,
'Twas on a tree they slew Him last,
When out of the woods He came.

Processional Hymn 91

Dykes

Offertory Anthem

Faure

Around our way the palm trees and the flow'rs !
Send forth their perfume on our festal day ;
Jesus appears, He comes to dry our tears,
Already crowds approach and homage pay.

All nations sing and chant His praise,
Now let your voices join with ours and anthems raise !
Hosanna ! Glory to God !
Blessed is He who comes bringing salvation !

His voice is heard, and nations at the sound
Have now regained that freedom sought in vain ;
Humanity shall everywhere abound,
For light to all the world is given again.

Rejoice e'en thou, saintly Jerusalem !
Thy children now sing the Redeemer's name ;
For by His grace the God of Bethlehem
Brings them new faith, and hope confirms the same.

The Saviour King goes forth to die !
Goes forth in all His glory bright !
And angels from the realms on high,
Look down to see the wondrous sight.
On, on to Calvary's fateful hill,
Reviled by those He came to bless ;
But in His suffering bearing still
The majesty of Righteousness !
The Saviour King goes forth to die !

With weariness and anguish sore,
On, on to death the Saviour goes !
The Roman helmets flash before,
Behind Him shout exultant foes.
The Son of God goes forth to die !
To yield in pain His mortal breath,
To rob the grave of Victory,
And take, for aye, the sting from death !
The Saviour King goes forth to die !

Forgetting their couches of pain,
Voices, glad voices, with rapture
Are swelling a glad refrain.

Open the gates of the Temple,
One grand hallelujah be heard.
Open your hearts to the Saviour,
Make room for the crucified Lord.
Tears and the anguish of midnight
Are lost in the splendor of day.
They who in sorrow once doubted
Are swelling a glad refrain:
"I know that my Redeemer liveth."

Canst thou, my heart, lift up thy voice and sing:

Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on !
The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Lead Thou me on !
Keep Thou my feet ! I do not ask to see
The distant scene ; one step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
Shouldst lead me on ;
I loved to choose and see my path ; but now
Lead Thou me on !
I loved the garish day ; and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will ; remember not past years.

So long Thy power has blest me, sure it still
Will lead me on
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone ;
And with the morn those angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

Open the gates of the Temple,

Open your hearts, O ye people,
That Jesus may enter to-day.
Hark from the sick and the dying,
Forgetting their couches of pain,
Voices, glad voices, with rapture
Are swelling a glad refrain.

Open the gates of the Temple,
One grand hallelujah be heard.
Open your hearts to the Saviour,
Make room for the crucified Lord.
Tears and the anguish of midnight
Are lost in the splendor of day.
They who in sorrow once doubted
Are swelling a glad refrain :

"I know that my Redeemer liveth."

Canst thou, my heart, lift up thy voice and sing :
I know that my Redeemer liveth,
And because He lives, I, too, shall live.

The King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

And so through all the length of days,
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever. AMEN.

No partings yonder!

Again shall sunder.
Hearts cannot sever:
Dearer and fonder,

To help a wandering child to find his way,
To ponder o'er a noble thought, and pray,
And smile when evening falls,
This is my task.

To follow truth as blind men long for light,
To do my best from dawn of day till night,
To keep my heart fit for His holy sight,
And answer when He calls,
This is my task.

And then my Savior by and by to meet,
When faith hath made her task on earth

My heart, O Sion, droops and yearns,

Te Deum in C Kinder

Offertory Anthem Bradford-Campbell

Jesus, Saviour, pilot me
Over life's tempestuous sea;
Unknown waves before me roll,
Hiding rock and treach'rous shoal;
Chart and compass come from Thee,
Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

As a mother stills her child,
Thou canst hush the ocean wild;
Boistrous waves obey Thy will,
When Thou say'st to them, "Be still!"
Wondrous Sov'reign of the sea,
Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

When at last I near the shore,
And the fearful breakers roar
'Twixt me and the peaceful rest,
Then, while leaning on Thy breast,
May I hear Thee say to me,
"Fear not, I will pilot thee!"

Soldiers of Christ, arise

Strong in the strength which God
supplies
Through His eternal Son.

From strength to strength go on,
Wrestle, and fight, and pray;
Tread all the powers of darkness
down,
And win the well-fought day.

Strong in the Lord of Hosts,
And in His mighty power;
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.

That having all things done,
And all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome, through Christ
alone,
And stand complete at last.

Stand then in His great might,
With all His strength endued;
And take to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God.

To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit ever blest,
The One in Three, the Three in One,
Be endless praise addressed.

Processional Hymn 194

Hopkins

Te Deum in F

Coleridge-Taylor

Offertory Anthem

Kinder

Jesus, the very thought of Thee,
With sweetness fills the breast;
But sweeter far Thy face to see,
And in Thy presence rest.

O hope of every contrite heart,
O joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind Thou art!
How good to those who seek!

No voice can sing, no heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than Jesus' Name,
The Saviour of mankind.

But what to those who find? Ah, this
Nor tongue, nor pen can show;
The love of Jesus, what it is,
None but His loved ones know.

Jesus, our only joy be Thou,
As Thou our prize wilt be;
In Thee be all our glory now,

From the accursed load.

I bring my guilt to Jesus,
To wash my crimson stains
White in His blood most precious,
Till not a spot remains.

I lay my griefs on Jesus,
My burdens and my cares;
He from them all releases;
He all my sorrows shares.

I rest my soul on Jesus,
This weary soul of mine;
His right hand me embraces,
I on His breast recline.

I long to be like Jesus,
Meek, loving, lowly, mild;
I long to be like Jesus,
The Father's holy Child;

I long to be with Jesus,
Amid the heavenly throng;
To sing with saints His praises,
To learn the angels' song.

The radiant morn hath passed away,
And spent too soon its golden store;
The shadows of departing day
Creep on once more.

Our life is but a fading dawn,
Its glorious noon, how quickly past;
Lead us, O Christ, when all is gone,
Safe home at last.

Where saints are clothed in spotless white,
And evening shadows never fall,
Where Thou eternal Light of Light,
Art Lord of all.

Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

As a mother stills her child,
Thou canst hush the ocean wild;
Boistrous waves obey Thy will,
When Thou say'st to them, "Be still!"
Wondrous Sov'reign of the sea,
Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

When at last I near the shore,
And the fearful breakers roar
'Twixt me and the peaceful rest,
Then, while leaning on Thy breast,
May I hear Thee say to me,
"Fear not, I will pilot thee!"

Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
 Lead Thou me on!
 The night is dark, and I am far from home,
 Lead Thou me on!
 Keep Thou my feet! I do not ask to see
 The distant scene; one step enough for me.
 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
 Shouldst lead me on;
 I loved to choose and see my path; but now
 Lead Thou me on!
 I loved the garish day; and, spite of fears,
 Pride ruled my will; remember not past years.
 So long Thy power has blest me, sure it still
 Will lead me on!
 O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
 The night is gone;
 And with the morn those angel faces smile,
 Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

Jesus, the very thought of Thee, With sweetness fills the breast; But sweeter far Thy face to see, And in Thy presence rest.	O hope of every contrite heart, O joy of all the meek, To those who fall, how kind Thou art! How good to those who seek!
---	---

No voice can sing, no heart can frame, Nor can the memory find, A sweeter sound than Jesus' Name, The Saviour of mankind.	But what to those who find? Ah, this Nor tongue, nor pen can show; The love of Jesus, what it is, None but His loved ones know.

 As Thou our prize wilt be;
 In Thee be all our glory now,

The time is fulfilled, the Kingdom of God is at hand; prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

Offertory Anthem

Jewell

Repent ye; the time is fulfilled and the Kingdom of God is at hand; bring forth, therefore, fruits meet for repentance.

The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight His paths, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Thus saith the Lord, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am the Lord, your King. Behold, I will send My messenger and he shall prepare the way before Me; and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, saith the Lord of Hosts. The time is fulfilled, the Kingdom of God is at hand; prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

Lo, He comes with clouds descending,
Once for favored mortals slain;
Thousand, thousand Saints attending
Swell the triumph of His train:
Allelulia!
Christ returns on earth to reign.

Offertory Anthem

Hark! hark, my soul! Angelic songs
are swelling
O'er earth's green fields and ocean's
wave-beat shore;
How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more!

Angels of Jesus,
Angels of light,
Singing to welcome
The pilgrims of the night.

Onward we go, for still we hear them
singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids
you come;"
And through the dark, its echoes
sweetly ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us
home.

Far, far away, like bells at evening
pealing,

The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land
and sea,
And laden souls by thousands meekly
stealing,
Kind Shepherd, turn their weary
steps to Thee.

Rest comes at length, though life be
long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome
night be past;
Faith's journeys end in welcome to
the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home,
will come at last.

Angels, sing on! your faithful watches
keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
Till morning's joy shall end the night
of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.

Though poor be the chamber, come here, come and adore,
Lo, the Lord of Heaven hath to mortals given,
Life for evermore!

Shepherds who folded your flocks beside you,
Tell what was told by angel voices near.
To you this day is born He Who will guide you
Through paths of peace to living waters clear.

Kings from a far land, draw near and behold Him,
Led by the beam whose warning bade ye come;
Your crown cast down, with robe royal enfold Him;
Your King descends to earth from brighter home.

Wind, to the cedars proclaim the joyful story,
Wave of the sea, the tidings bear afar!
The night is gone! Behold, in all its glory,
All broad and bright rises th' eternal Morning Star!

Disperse the shades of gloom and sadness;
Your Lord is born this happy day.

Mark how the Mother lulls to slumber
Her new-born Babe with tenderest love
And guards her treasure from above.

O blessed Child, with her who bore Thee,
We, too, will kneel in faith before Thee.
O God Incarnate, we adore Thee!

O Word of God, for us incarnate,
By faith we hear Thine angels sing
Their hymns of praise to Thee, their King.

We join with them in adoration,
We pour to Thee our supplication,
That Thou wouldst grant us, Lord, salvation.

Processional Hymn 62

Offertory Anthem

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness, and lend us Thine aid;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where the infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on His cradle the dew drops are shining,
Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore Him in slumber reclining;
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

Shall we not yield Him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gold would His favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor. Amen.

And the sky was bright with a holy

O'er the place where Jesus lay.

'Twas a humble birthplace, but, oh, how much
God gave to us that day!
From the manger bed what a path has led,
What a perfect, holy way!

Alleluia! Oh, how the angels sang!

Morning Prayer and Ante-Communion at Eleven o'Clock

Processional Hymn 493

Te Deum in F

Offertory Anthem

Lovely appear over the mountains
The feet of them that preach and bring good news of peace.
Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down.
Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.
Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,
In the brightness of joy fade away and are gone.
In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding,
Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground;
Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound:
Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding.
Then the timorous birds,—e'en the turtle-dove meek,—
Shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless beak.

Recessional Hymn 260

Evening Prayer at Four o'Clock

Processional Hymn 444

Magnificat

Nunc Dimittis

Offertory Anthem

Behold the Master passeth by.
Oh, seest thou not His pleading eye?
With low sad voice He calleth thee,
Leave this vain world and follow Me.

Oh soul bowed down with harrowing care,
Hast thou no thought of Heaven to spare?
From earthly toils lift up thine eye,
Behold the Master passeth by.

One heard Him calling long ago
And straight-way left all things below,
Counting his earthly gain as loss
For Jesus and His blessed cross.

God calls us gently every day.
Why should we then our bliss delay?
He calls to Heaven and endless joy.
Behold the Master passeth by.

Thou, Lord, art calling me,
I will leave all and follow Thee.

Fierce was the wild billow,
Dark was the night,
Oars labor'd heavily,

Trembled the mariners,
Peril was nigh;
Then saith the God of God,

Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!
Christ the royal Master
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, His banners go.
Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!

Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise!
Onward, etc.

Onward, then, ye people!
Join our happy throng!
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph song!
Glory, laud, and honor,
Unto Christ the King;
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing.
Onward, etc.

At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee;
On, then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory!

O eyes that are weary and hearts that are sore,
Look off unto Jesus, now sorrow no more;
The light of His countenance shineth so bright,
That here, as in heaven, there need be no night.

While looking to Jesus my heart cannot fear,
I tremble no more when I see Jesus near,
I know that His presence my safeguard will be,
For "Why are ye troubled?" He saith unto me.

Still looking to Jesus, O may I be found,
When Jordan's dark waters encompass me 'round;
They bear me away, in His presence to be—
I see Him still nearer, Whom always I see.

Then shall I know the full beauty and grace
Of Jesus, my Lord, when I stand face to face;
Shall know how His love went before me each day.
And wondered that ever my eyes turned away.

Offertory Anthem

The King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight,
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever.

Benedicite in F

Stokowski

Offertory Anthem

Elgar

Jesus, meek and lowly,
Saviour, pure and holy,
On Thy love relying,
Hear me humbly crying.

By Thy red wounds streaming,
With Thy life-blood gleaming,
Blood for sinners flowing,
Pardon free bestowing.

Prince of life and power,
My salvation Tower,
On the Cross I view Thee,
Calling sinners to Thee.

By that fount of blessing,
Thy dear love expressing,
All my aching sadness
Turn Thou into gladness.

There behold me gazing
At the sight amazing;
Bending low before Thee,
Helpless I adore Thee.

Lord, in mercy guide me,
Be Thou e'er beside me;
In Thy ways direct me,
'Neath Thy wings protect me. Amen.

He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heav'n,
Saved by His precious blood.

We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved!
And we must love Him too,
And trust in His redeeming blood,
And try His works to do.

My love to Thee!

Once earthly joy I craved,
Sought peace and rest:
Now Thee alone I seek;
Give what is best;
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee!
More love to Thee!

Then shall my latest breath
Whisper Thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

Open the gates of the Temple,
Strew palms on the Conqueror's way,
Open your hearts, O ye people,
That Jesus may enter to-day.
Hark from the sick and the dying,
Forgetting their couches of pain,
Voices, glad voices, with rapture
Are swelling a glad refrain.

Open the gates of the Temple,
One grand hallelujah be heard,
Open your hearts to the Saviour,
Make room for the crucified Lord.
Tears and the anguish of midnight
Are lost in the splendor of day,
They who in sorrow once doubted
Are swelling a glad refrain:
"I know that my Redeemer liveth."

Canst thou, my heart, lift up thy voice
and sing:
I know that my Redeemer liveth,
And because He lives, I, too, shall live.

Offertory Anthem

Coleridge-Taylor

Now late on the Sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

And, behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it.

His appearance was as lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

And for fear of him the watchers did quake, and became as dead men.

And the angel answered and said unto the women: Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which hath been crucified.

He is not here; for He is risen, even as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

And go quickly, and tell His disciples, He is risen from the dead.

And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring His disciples word.

And behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail.

Go ye, therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost;

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, unto the end of the world. Amen.

In the heavenly regions hear melodious legions.
Him forever they bless, Jesus Christ they confess.
Christ, my heart Thou enfoldest, Thou my soul ever holdest.
By Thy grace I see Thy face! Hosanna, glory, praise!

Night darkly veiled all the day's glory,
When on the earth closed the sad story.
Now doth the sun beam bright once more
While all the world doth in wonder adore.

In the midst of the angels and the archangels,
See the Victor on high, resplendent in the sky!

With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

And so through all the length of days,
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever. Amen.

But ah! 'tis vain; no voice to cheer me
Rings through the gloom to calm my troubled breast!

O God, is my cry unavailing?
My hope, must it perish and die?
Shine forth! O shine forth through the darkness!
Wilt Thou not hear me?
Lord, wilt Thou not hear my cry?

Hold Thou my hand; unless Thou lead me,
My feet will wander far and go astray.
Thou, O Lord, knowest how I need Thee,
Be Thou my Guide along this dreary way.
Is this the path to promised glory?
My only road to reach the fields of light?
Do countless dangers lie before me
Ere dawns the vision holy on my sight?
O God, I will hope in Thy mercy!

Processional Hymn 396

Dykes

Offertory Anthem

Chadwick

I do not ask, O Lord, that life may be
A pleasant road;
I do not ask that Thou wouldst take from me
Aught of its load.

I do not ask that flowers should always spring
Beneath my feet;
I know too well the poison and the sting
Of things too sweet.

I do not ask my cross to understand,
My way to see;
Better in darkness just to feel Thy hand,
And follow Thee.

Joy is like restless day; but peace divine
Like quiet night.
Lead me, O Lord, till perfect day shall shine,
Through peace to light.

Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks, so longeth my soul
after Thee, O God. My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God. O, when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

Jerusalem, my happy home,
Name ever dear to me,
When shall my labors have an end,
Thy joys when shall I see?

When shall these eyes thy heaven-built walls
And pearly gates behold?
Thy bulwarks, with salvation strong,
And streets of shining gold?

Apostles, martyrs, prophets, there
Around my Saviour stand;
And soon my friends in Christ below
Will join the glorious band.

Jerusalem, my happy home,
My soul still pants for thee;
Then shall my labors have an end,
Then I thy joys shall see.

Spirit of God, descend upon my heart,
Wean it from earth, thro' all its pulses move;
Stoop to my weakness, mighty as Thou art,
And make me love Thee as I ought to love.

I ask no dream, no prophet ecstasies,
No sudden rending of the veil of clay:
No angel visitant, no op'ning skies,
But take the dimness of my soul away.

Teach me to feel that Thou art always nigh;
Teach me the struggles of the world to bear,
To check the rising doubt, the rebel sigh;
Teach me the patience of unanswered prayer.

Bright as the summer's noon tide ray:
The star-gemmed crowns and realms of glory
Invite thy happy soul away.

Arise! arise, the light breaks o'er thee,
Thy name is graven on the throne,
Thy home is in the world of glory,

Litany and Holy Communion at Eleven o'Clock

Processional Hymn 404

Storer

Offertory Anthem,

Godfrey

There is no sorrow, Lord, too light,
To bring in prayer to Thee;
There is no anxious care too slight
To wake Thy sympathy.
Thou, Who hast trod the thorny road,
Wilt share each small distress;
The love which bore the greater load
Will not refuse the less.

There is no secret sigh we breathe
But meets Thine ear divine;
And every cross grows light beneath
The shadow, Lord, of Thine.
Life's ills without, sin's strife within,
The heart would overflow
But for that love which died for sin,
That love which wept for woe.

Sanctus in C

Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!
Christ the royal Master
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, His banners go.
Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!

Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise!
Onward, etc.

At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee;
On, then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory!

Onward, then, ye people!
Join our happy throng!
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph song!
Glory, laud, and honor,
Unto Christ the King;
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing.
Onward, etc.

I was glad when they said unto me, we will go into the house of the Lord. Our feet shall stand in thy gates, O Jerusalem. O pray for the peace of Jerusalem. They shall prosper that love thee. Peace be within thy walls and plenteousness within thy palaces. For my brethren and companions' sakes I will wish thee prosperity. Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God I will seek to do thee good.

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, City of our God;
He Whose word cannot be broken
Formed thee for His own abode.

On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou mayest smile at all thy foes.

Offertory Anthem

Oakeley

We thank Thee, Lord,
For mercies manifold in these dark days;—
For Heart of Grace that would not suffer wrong;
For all the stirrings in the dead dry bones;
For bold self-steeling to the times'
dread needs;
For every sacrifice of self to Thee;
For ease and wealth and life so freely given;
We thank Thee, Lord,
For Thy deep sounding of the hearts of men;
For Thy great opening of the hearts
of men;
For Thy close knitting of the hearts
of men;
For all who sprang to answer the great call;

For their high courage and self-sacrifice;
For their endurance under deadly stress;
For all the unknown heroes who have died
To keep the land inviolate and free;
We thank Thee, Lord,
For all who come back from the Gates of Death;
For all who pass to larger life with
Thee,
And find in Thee the wider liberty;
For hope of righteous and Enduring Peace;
For hope of cleaner earth and closer heaven;
With burdened hearts, but faith un-

We thank Thee, Lord!

Say, watchman, what of the night?
Do the dews of the morning fall?
Have the orient skies a border of
light,
Like the fringe of a funeral pall?

That night of sorrow thy soul
May surely prepare to meet;
But away shall the clouds of thy
heaviness roll,
And the morning of joy be sweet.

The night is fast waning on high,
And soon shall the darkness flee:
And the morn shall spread o'er the
blushing sky,
And bright shall its glories be.

But, watchman, what of the night?
When the arrow of death is sped?
And the grave, which no glimmering
star can light,
Shall be my sleeping bed?

But, watchman, what of the night,
When sorrow and pain are mine?
And the pleasures of life so sweet
and bright
No longer around me shine?

That night is near, and the cheerless
tomb
Shall keep thy body in store,
Till the morn of eternity rise on the gloom
And night shall be no more.

How can we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?

If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning.

Offertory Anthem Gounod

Here by Babylon's wave,
Tho' heathen hands have bound us,
Tho' afar from our land
The pains of death surround us;
Zion! thy mem'ry still,
In our hearts we are keeping,
And still we turn to thee,
Our eyes all sad with weeping.

Lord, tho' the victor command—
In captivity sad and lowly,
How shall we raise Thy song so holy,
That we sung in our Fatherland?
Jerusalem, if we forget thee,
Let our hands remember not their pow'r!
Jerusalem, if we forget thee,
Let our tongues be silent from that hour!

Thro' our harps that we hung on the trees,
Goes the low wind, wearily moaning,
Mingles the sad note of the breeze,
With voice as sad of sigh and groaning.
When mad with wine our foe rejoices,
Then unto their altars they throng,
Loud for mirth then they call—A song!—
A song of Zion sing, lift up your voices!

Woe unto thee, Babylon, mighty city,
For the day of thy fall is nigh!
For thee no hope, for thee no pity,
Tho' loud thy wail riseth on high?
Then shalt thou, desolate, forsaken,
Be torn from thy fanes and thy thrones,
In that day shall thy babes be taken,
Taken and dashed against the stones!
Then unto thee, O Babylon, the mighty,
be woe!

Offertory Anthem

Sullivan

Say, watchman, what of the night?
Do the dews of the morning fall?
Have the orient skies a border of
light,
Like the fringe of a funeral pall?

That night of sorrow thy soul
May surely prepare to meet;
But away shall the clouds of thy
heaviness roll,
And the morning of joy be sweet.

The night is fast waning on high,
And soon shall the darkness flee:
And the morn shall spread o'er the
blushing sky,
And bright shall its glories be.

But, watchman, what of the night?
When the arrow of death is sped?
And the grave, which no glimmering
star can light,
Shall be my sleeping bed?

But, watchman, what of the night,
When sorrow and pain are mine?
And the pleasures of life so sweet
and bright
No longer around me shine?

That night is near, and the cheerless
tomb
Shall keep thy body in store,
Till the morn of eternity rise on the
gloom
And night shall be no more.

Hark! hark, my soul! Angelic songs
are swelling
O'er earth's green fields and ocean's
wave-beat shore;
How sweet the truth those blessed
strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be
no more!

The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land
and sea,
And laden souls by thousands meekly
stealing,
Kind Shepherd, turn their weary
steps to Thee.

Angels of Jesus,
Angels of light,
Singing to welcome
The pilgrims of the night.

Rest comes at length, though life be
long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome
night be past;
Faith's journeys end in welcome to
the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home,
will come at last.

Onward we go, for still we hear them
singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids
you come;"
And through the dark, its echoes
sweetly ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us
home.

Angels, sing on! your faithful watches
keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
Till morning's joy shall end the night
of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in
cloudless love.

Far, far away, like bells at evening
pealing,

Offertory Anthem

Behold, there came wise men from the East to Jerusalem to see where was born the Saviour, Christ.

His star we have seen, and to worship Him are we come. Where is he?

In Bethlehem, the land of Judea, is born He who is to become Governor, that shall rule the people of Israel; the One who is Wonderful, Counsellor, the mighty God, the Prince of Peace.

Mary, the Virgin Mother, watches tenderly the helpless Babe, the Holy Child now born, Jesus, the Son of God.

Gifts most costly, rich and rare, are placed with lowly reverence at the Infant Saviour's feet with fervent prayer and deep devotion.

Laud and honor to the Father,
Laud and honor to the Son,
Laud and honor to the Spirit,
Ever Three and ever One,

When Jesus our Lord was born in Bethlehem, in the land of Judea, behold, from the East to the city of Jerusalem there came wise men, and said: Say, where is He born, the King of Judea? For we have seen His star and are come to adore Him. There shall a star from Jacob come forth and a sceptre from Israel rise up; and dash in pieces princes and nations.

As bright the star of morning gleams,

From "Christus"

When Jesus our Lord was born in Bethlehem, in the land of Judea, behold, from the East to the city of Jerusalem there came wise men, and said: Say, where is He born, the King of Judea? For we have seen His star and are come to adore Him. There shall a star from Jacob come forth and a sceptre from Israel rise up; and dash in pieces princes and nations.

As bright the star of morning gleams,
So Jesus sheddeth glorious beams
Of light and consolation!
Thy Word, O Lord, radiance darting,
Truth imparting, gives salvation;

Behold, there came wise men from the East to Jerusalem to see where was born the Saviour, Christ.

His star we have seen, and to worship Him are we come. Where is He?

In Bethlehem, the land of Judea, is born He who is to become Governor, that shall rule the people of Israel; the One who is Wonderful, Counsellor, the mighty God, the Prince of Peace.

Mary, the Virgin Mother, watches tenderly the helpless Babe, the Holy Child now born, Jesus, the Son of God.

Gifts most costly, rich and rare, are placed with lowly reverence at the Infant Saviour's feet with fervent prayer and deep devotion.

Laud and honor to the Father,
Laud and honor to the Son,
Laud and honor to the Spirit,
Ever Three and ever One,
Consubstantial, co-eternal,
While unending ages run.
Hallelujah! Amen.

Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down.
Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.
Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,
In the brightness of joy fade away and are gone.
In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding,
Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground;
Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound:
Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding.
Then the timorous birds,—e'en the turtle-dove meek,—
Shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless beak.

Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppress.
I know not, oh, I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiancy of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever
Are clad in robes of white.

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

Lord, I hear of show'rs of blessing
Thou art scattering full and free,
Show'rs the thirsty land refreshing,

Offertory Anthem

Kinder

Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppress.
I know not, oh, I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiancy of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever
Are clad in robes of white.

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me
abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help the helpless, oh, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour,
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's
power?

Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can
be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide
with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass
away,
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?

I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing
eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to
the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain
shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,
In the brightness of joy fade away and are gone.
In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding,
Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground;
Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound:
Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding.
Then the timorous birds,—e'en the turtle-dove meek,—
Shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless beak.

Yield to me now for I am weak,
But confident in self-despair,
Speak to my heart in blessings, speak,
Be conquer'd by my instant prayer !
Speak, or Thou never hence shalt move
And tell me if Thy Name is Love.

'Tis Love ! 'tis Love ! Thou died'st for me !
I hear Thy whisper in my heart !

The grace that sought and found me,
Alone can keep me clean.

'Tis only in Thee hiding,
I feel my life secure ;
Only in Thee abiding,
The conflict can endure ;
Thine arm the victory gaineth
O'er every hateful foe ;
Thy love my heart sustaineth
In all its care and woe

Soon shall my eyes behold Thee,
With rapture, face to face ;
One half hath not been told me
Of all Thy power and grace :
Thy beauty, Lord, and glory,

decline from sin and incline to virtue, that we may walk with a perfect heart before Thee now and evermore.

Processional Hymn 507 Cutler

Bonum est Anglican Chant

Deus misereatur Anglican Chant

Offertory Anthem Hammond

Behold the Master passeth by.
Oh, seest thou not His pleading eye?
With low sad voice He calleth thee,
Leave this vain world and follow Me.

Oh soul bowed down with harrowing care,
Hast thou no thought of Heaven to spare?
From earthly toils lift up thine eye,
Behold the Master passeth by.

One heard Him calling long ago
And straight-way left all things below,
Counting his earthly gain as loss
For Jesus and His blessed cross.

God calls us gently every day.
Why should we then our bliss delay?
He calls to Heaven and endless joy.
Behold the Master passeth by.

Thou, Lord, art calling me,
I will leave all and follow Thee.

Processional Hymn 340 Lane

Bonum est in B Bruch

Deus misereatur in F Bunnett

Offertory Anthem Brewer

O Lamb of God still keep me
Near to Thy wounded side!

'Tis only there in safety
And peace I can abide.

What foes and snares surround me!
What doubts and fears within!

The grace that sought and found me,
Alone can keep me clean.

'Tis only in Thee hiding,
I feel my life secure;

Only in Thee abiding,
The conflict can endure;

Thine arm the victory gaineth
O'er every hateful foe;

Thy love my heart sustaineth
In all its care and woe

Soon shall my eyes behold Thee,

With rapture, face to face;
One half hath not been told me

Of all Thy power and grace:
Thy beauty, Lord, and glory,

The wonders of Thy love,
Shall be the endless story

Of all Thy saints above. AMEN.

Offertory Anthem Salter

I lay my sins on Jesus,
The spotless Lamb of God;
He bears them all, and frees us
From the accursed load.

I bring my guilt to Jesus,
To wash my crimson stains
White in His blood most precious,
Till not a spot remains.

I lay my griefs on Jesus,
My burdens and my cares;
He from them all releases;
He all my sorrows shares.

I rest my soul on Jesus,
This weary soul of mine;
His right hand me embraces,
I on His breast recline.

I long to be like Jesus,
Meek, loving, lowly, mild;
I long to be like Jesus,
The Father's holy Child;

I long to be with Jesus,
Amid the heavenly throng;
To sing with saints His praises,
To learn the angels' song.

What pains He had to bear,

And trust in His redeeming blood,
And try His works to do.

He died that we might be forgiv'n,
He died to make us good,

Into the woods my Master went
Clean forspent;
Into the woods my Master came,
Forspent with love and shame.
But the olives they were not blind to
Him,
The little gray leaves were kind to
Him,
The thorn-tree had a mind to Him,
When into the woods He came.

Out of the woods my Master went,
And He was well content;
Out of the woods my Master came,
Content with death and shame.
When death and shame would woo
Him last,
From under the trees they drew Him
last,
'Twas on a tree they slew Him last,
When out of the woods He came.

All they that see Me laugh Me to scorn.
Be not far from Me; for trouble is near, there is none to help Me.
My tongue cleaveth to My mouth. They pierced My hands and My

From "The Crucifixion"

King ever glorious!
The dews of death are gathering
round Thee;
Upon the Cross Thy foes have bound
Thee—
Thy strength is gone.

Not in Thy Majesty,
Robed in Heaven's supremest splen-dour;
But in weakness and surrender,
Thou hangest here.

Who can be like Thee?
Pilate high in Zion dwelling,
Rome with arms the world compelling,
Proud tho' they be?

Thou art sublime:
Far more awful in Thy weakness,
More than kingly in Thy meekness,
Thou Son of God.

Glory and honour:
Let the world divide and take them;
Crown its monarchs and unmake them;
But Thou wilt reign.

Here in abasement;
Crownless, poor, disrobed, and bleed-
ing;
There, in glory interceding,
Thou art the King!

Offertory Anthem

Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

God is not a God of the dead, but of the living, for all live unto Him. If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, them that sleep in Jesus shall God bring with Him. Comfort ye one another with these words.

The trumpet shall sound and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. Then shall be brought to pass the saying: Death is swallowed up in victory. O death where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Come, see the place where Jesus lay,
And hear angelic watchers say
He lives—who once was slain.
Why seek the living midst the dead?
Remember how the Saviour said
That He would rise again.

O joyful sound! O glorious hour!
When by His own Almighty power
He rose and left the grave.
Now let our songs His triumph tell
Who burst the bonds of death and hell,
And ever lives to save.

The first-begotten of the dead,
For us He rose our glorious Head,
Immortal life to bring.
What though the saints like Him shall

They share their Leader's victory,
And triumph with their King.

Saviour, like a Shepherd lead us,
Much we need Thy tender care,
In Thy pleasant pastures feed us,
For our use Thy folds prepare.

Thou hast promised to receive us,
Poor and sinful though we be,
Thou hast mercy to relieve us,
Grace to cleanse and power to free.

Blessed Jesus, Blessed Jesus,
Thou hast bought us, Thine we are.

Blessed Jesus, Blessed Jesus,
Let us early turn to Thee.

Early let us seek Thy favor,
Early let us learn Thy will,
Do Thou, Lord, our only Saviour,
With Thy love our bosoms fill.

The King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

And so through all the length of days,
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever. Amen.

Strong in the Lord of Hosts, And in His mighty power; Who in the strength of Jesus trusts Is more than conqueror.	That having all things done, And all your conflicts past, Ye may o'ercome, through Christ alone, And stand complete at last.

Stand then in His great might, With all His strength endued; And take to arm you for the fight, The panoply of God.	To God, the Father, Son, And Spirit ever blest, The One in Three, the Three in One, Be endless praise addressed.

Thou didst seek me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;
Thou to save my soul from danger,
Didst redeem me with Thy blood.

Teach me some melodious measure,
Sung by raptured saints above;
Fill my soul with sacred pleasure,
While I sing redeeming love.

By Thy hand, restored, defended,
Safe through life thus far I've come;
Safe, O Lord, when life is ended,
Bring me to my heavenly home.

Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God I will seek to do thee good.

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, City of our God;

Tis heard in the rustling of leaves in the

Seen in the waving of golden fields,
In the loveliest flowers' gaudy array;

'Tis seen in myriad stars of heaven;
Fierce it sounds in the thunder's loud roll,
And flames in the lightning's brightly

Yet clearer thy throbbing heart to thee
proclaims Jehovah's power,
The Lord God Almighty!

Look thou praying to Heaven, and hope for

Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppress.
I know not, oh, I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiance of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever
Are clad in robes of white.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

Love Divine, all love excelling,
Joy of Heaven to Earth come down,
Fix in us Thy humble dwelling,
All Thy faithful mercies crown.

Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all Thy life receive;
Hasten to return and never,
Never more Thy mercies leave.

Jesus, Thou art all compassion,
Pure, unbounded Love Thou art;
Visit us with Thy salvation,
Enter every trembling heart.

I do not ask, O Lord, that life may be
A pleasant road;

I do not ask that Thou wouldst take from me
Aught of its load.

I do not ask that flowers should always spring
Beneath my feet;
I know too well the poison and the sting
Of things too sweet.

I do not ask my cross to understand,
My way to see;
Better in darkness just to feel Thy hand,
And follow Thee.

Joy is like restless day; but peace divine
Like quiet night.
Lead me, O Lord, till perfect day shall shine,
Through peace to light.

Offertory Anthem

Kindred

Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppress.
I know not, oh, I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiancy of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever
Are clad in robes of white.

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

Processional Hymn 67

De Deum in D

Hymns 68, 83.

Offertory Anthem

Hosanna in the highest!
Who is this that cometh from Edom? Who is this, with dyed garments from Bozrah? This that is glorious in his apparel, traveling in the greatness of his strength.

I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.
Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me. I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; for the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

And when as Judge Thou drawest nigh,
The secrets of all hearts to try,
When sinners meet their awful doom,
And saints attain their heavenly home,
O let us not for evil past
Be driven from Thy face at last,
But with the blessed evermore
Behold and love Thee and adore. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

Hark! hark, my soul! Angelic songs
are swelling
O'er earth's green fields and ocean's
wave-beat shore;
How sweet the truth those blessed
strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be
no more!

Angels of Jesus,
Angels of light,
Singing to welcome
The pilgrims of the night.

Onward we go, for still we hear them
singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids
you come;"
And through the dark, its echoes
sweetly ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us
home.

Far, far away, like bells at evening
pealing,
The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land
and sea,
And laden souls by thousands meekly
stealing,
Kind Shepherd, turn their weary
steps to Thee.

Rest comes at length, though life be
long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome
night be past;
Faith's journeys end in welcome to
the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home,
will come at last.

Angels, sing on! your faithful watches
keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the
songs above;
Till morning's joy shall end the night
of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.

Offertory Anthem

Hail, thou ever-blessed morn!
Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the Lord thy God.

For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem; behold, thy King cometh unto thee.

Herein was the love of God manifested in us, that God hath sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him.

Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us.

God is love; and he that abideth in love abideth in God, and God abideth in him.

Love came down at Christmas,
Love all lovely, love divine;
Love was born at Christmas,
Stars and angels gave the sign.

Offertory Anthem

Parker

It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold;
Peace on earth, good-will to men,
From heaven's all-gracious King;
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

O ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow!
Look now! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing;
Oh, rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world:
Above its sad and lonely plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

For lo, the days are hastening on,
By prophets seen of old,
When with the ever-circling years,
Shall come the time foretold,
When the new heaven and earth shall own
The Prince of Peace their King,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing.

Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on!
The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Lead Thou me on!
Keep Thou my feet! I do not ask to see
The distant scene; one step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on!
I loved the garish day; and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will; remember not past years.

So long Thy power has blest me, sure it still
Will lead me on!

Offertory Anthem

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness, and lend us Thine aid;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where the infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on His cradle the dew drops are shining,
Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore Him in slumber reclining;
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

Shall we not yield Him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom and offerings divine.
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gold would His favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor. Amen.

Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel! This day let it be known that Thou art God; and I am Thy servant! O show to all this people that I have done these things according to Thy word! O hear me, Lord, and answer me; and show this people that Thou art Lord God; and let their hearts again be turned!

Cast thy burden upon the Lord and He shall sustain thee. He never will suffer the righteous to fall: He is at thy right hand.

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me
abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help the helpless, oh, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour,
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's
power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can
be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide
with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass
away,
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy
victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing
eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to
the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain
shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

A pleasant road:
I do not ask that Thou wouldst take from me
Aught of its load.
I do not ask that flowers should always spring
Beneath my feet;
I know too well the poison and the sting
Of things too sweet.
I do not ask my cross to understand,
My way to see;
Better in darkness just to feel Thy hand,
And follow Thee.

Like quiet night.

Processional Hymn 127

Hopkins

Hymns 126, 135, 329.

Offertory Anthem

Foster

Oh, for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame,
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from Thy throne,
And worship only Thee.

What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
That the world can never fill.

Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest;
I hate the sins that made Thee mourn,
And drove Thee from my breast.

So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

Processional Hymn 526

Mann

Benedicite in G

Kinder

Hymns 126, 129.

Offertory Anthem

Kinder

There is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

He died that we might be forgiv'n,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heav'n,
Saved by His precious blood.

We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved!
And we must love Him too,
And trust in His redeeming blood,
And try His works to do.

Into the woods my Master went
Clean forspent;
Into the woods my Master came,
Forspent with love and shame.

Out of the woods my Master went,
And He was well content;
Out of the woods my Master came,
Content with death and shame.

But the olives they were not blind to
Him,
The little gray leaves were kind to
Him,
The thorn tree had a mind to Him,
When into the woods He came.

When death and shame would woo
Him last,
From under the trees they drew Him
last,
'Twas on a tree they slew Him last,
When out of the woods He came.

Offertory Anthem

Kinder

There is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

That we might go at last to heav'n,
Saved by His precious blood.

We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

He died that we might be forgiv'n,
He died to make us good,

Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved!
And we must love Him, too,
And trust in His redeeming blood,
And try His works to do.

Recessional Hymn 150

Around our way the palm trees and the flow'rs!
Send forth their perfume on our festal day;

Already crowds approach and homage pay.

All nations sing and chant His praise,
Now let your voices join with ours and anthems raise!
Hosanna! Glory to God!
Blessed is He Who comes bringing salvation!

His voice is heard, and nations at the sound
Have now regained that freedom sought in vain;
Humanity shall everywhere abound,
For light to all the world is given again.

Rejoice e'en thou, saints Jerusalem!
Thy children now sing the Redeemer's name;
For by His grace the God of Bethlehem
Brings them new faith, and hope confirms the same.

Fling wide the gates, for the Saviour waits
To tread in His royal way;
He has come from above, in His power and love,
To die on this Passion Day.

His cross is a sign of love divine,
His crown is the thorn-wreath of woe;
He bears His load on the sorrowful road,
And bends 'neath the burden low.

How sweet is the grace of His sacred face,
And lovely beyond compare;
Tho' weary and worn with the merciless scorn
Of a world He has come to spare.

The burden of wrong that earth bears along,
Past evil, and evil to be—
All sins of man since the world began,
They are laid, dear Lord, on Thee.

Then on to the end, my God and my Friend,
With Thy banner lifted high!
Thou art come from above in Thy power and love
To endure and suffer and die.

In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first the stone from the door, and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow, and for fear of him the keepers did shake and became as dead men. And the angel answered and said unto the women: Fear not ye, for I know that ye seek Jesus which was crucified. He is not here, He is risen, as He

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

And so through all the length of days,

The paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of
The shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
For Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence
Of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and
Mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Offertory Anthem

Shelley

The King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

And so through all the length of days,
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever. Amen.

Tis heard in the rustling of leaves in the

Seen in the waving of golden fields,
In the loveliest flowers' gaudy array;

'Tis seen in myriad stars of heaven;
Fierce it sounds in the thunder's loud roll,
And flames in the lightning's brightly

Yet clearer thy throbbing heart to thee
proclaims Jehovah's power,
The Lord God Almighty!
Look thou praying to Heaven, and hope for grace and for mercy.

Soldiers of Christ, arise

Through His eternal Son.

From strength to strength go on,
Wrestle, and fight, and pray;
Tread all the powers of darkness
down,
And win the well-fought day.

Strong in the Lord of Hosts.
And in His mighty power;
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.

That having all things done,
And all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome, through Christ
alone.
And stand complete at last.

Stand then in His great might,
With all His strength endued;
And take to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God.

To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit ever blest,
The One in Three, the Three in One.
Be endless praise addressed.

From that dear throng?"

No partings yonder!
Time and space never
Again shall sunder.
Hearts cannot sever:
Dearer and fonder,
Hands clasp for ever.

No weeping yonder!
All fled away!
While here I wander
Each weary day,
And sigh as I ponder
My long, long stay.

None wanting yonder!
Brought by the Lamb,
All gathered under
The ever-green palm;
Loud as night's thunder
Ascends the glad psalm.

A dark and toilsome road;
When shall I pass the wilderness,
And reach the saints' abode?

My spirit homeward turns,
And fain would thither flee;
My heart, O Sion, droops and yearns,
When I remember thee.

God of my life, be near:
On Thee my hopes I cast;
Oh, guide me through the desert here,
And bring me home at last! Amen.

If Thou, my God and Teacher,
Vouchsafe to be my own,
Though poor, I shall be richer
Than monarch on his throne.

I know no death, O Jesus,
Because I live in Thee;
Thy death it is which frees us
From death eternally.

If, while on earth I wander,
My heart is light and blest,
Ah, what shall I be yonder
In perfect peace and rest.

I fear no tribulation,
Since, whatso'er it be,
It makes no separation
Between my Lord and me.

O blessed thought in dying,
We go to meet the Lord,
Where there shall be no sighing,
A Kingdom our reward.

Father, to Thee we pray!
Mighty yet lowly,
Pure and most holy,
Hear from Thy starry throne our
prayer!
O let Thy love with sweet control,
Force all hatred from my soul!
Let the world and all its cares retire from ev'ry breast!
Ever be near us, O Father.
Guide our mortal footsteps,
Till we come to dwell with Thee,
Till we all Thy glory see. Amen.

Father, still more we ask;
Saviour of the desolate,
Guide of the unfortunate,
Hear from Thy starry throne our prayer!
If sorrow doth await us,
Tyrants vex and hate us,
Teach us still Thine own most patient part to bear.
Ever be near us, O Father!
When the hour of death shall come,
Then take us to Heaven with Thee.

My Homeland, oh my Homeland,
The land of souls free-born;
No gloomy night is known there,
But aye the fadeless morn;
I'm sighing for that country,
My heart is aching here;
There's no pain in the Homeland,
To which I'm drawing near.

My Lord is in the Homeland,
With angels bright and fair;
No sinful thing or evil
Can ever enter there.

The music of the ransomed
Is ringing in my ears,
And when I think of Homeland,
My eyes are filled with tears.

My loved ones in the Homeland
Are waiting me to come,
Where neither death nor sorrow
Invade their holy home.
O dear, dear native country!
O rest and peace above!
Christ bring us to the Homeland
Of His eternal love.

And ask that free from peril
The hours of fear may be;
O Jesus, keep me in Thy sight
And guard me thro' the coming night!

Be Thou my soul's preserver,

Processional Hymn 540

Te Deum in E

Parker

Hymns 534, 538.

Offertory Anthem

Macdougall

Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!
Christ the royal Master
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, His banners go.
Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!

Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise!
Onward, etc.

Onward, then, ye people!
Join our happy throng!
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph song!
Glory, laud, and honor,
Unto Christ the King;
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing.
Onward, etc.

At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee;
On, then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory!

Offertory Anthem

Brackett

O eyes that are weary and hearts that are sore,
Look off unto Jesus, now sorrow no more;
The light of His countenance shineth so bright,
That here, as in heaven, there need be no night.

While looking to Jesus my heart cannot fear,
I tremble no more when I see Jesus near,
I know that His presence my safeguard will be,
For "Why are ye troubled?" He saith unto me.

Still looking to Jesus, O may I be found,
When Jordan's dark waters encompass me 'round;
They bear me away, in His presence to be—
I see Him still nearer, Whom always I see.

Then shall I know the full beauty and grace
Of Jesus, my Lord, when I stand face to face;
Shall know how His love went before me each day,
And wondered that ever my eyes turned away.

Doth not wisdom cry, and understanding put forth her voice?
Unto you, O men I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.
Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.
For wisdom is better than rubies.
I love them that love me, and those that seek me early shall find me.
Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom. I am understanding. I have strength. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

Barnes

I know no life divided,
O Lord of Life, from Thee;
In Thee is life provided
For all mankind and me.

If Thou, my God and Teacher,
Vouchsafe to be my own,
Though poor, I shall be richer
Than monarch on his throne.

I know no death, O Jesus,
Because I live in Thee;
Thy death it is which frees us
From death eternally.

If, while on earth I wander,
My heart is light and blest,
Ah, what shall I be yonder
In perfect peace and rest.

I fear no tribulation,
Since, whatso'er it be,
It makes no separation
Between my Lord and me.

O blessed thought in dying,
We go to meet the Lord,
Where there shall be no sighing,
A Kingdom our reward.

Offertory Anthem

More love to Thee, O Christ,
More love to Thee!
Hear Thou the prayer I make
On bended knee;
This is my earnest plea,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

Once earthly joy I craved,
Sought peace and rest:
Now Thee alone I seek;
Give what is best;
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee!
More love to Thee!

Then shall my latest breath
Whisper Thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me
abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help the helpless, oh, abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass
away,
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour,
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's
power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can
be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide
with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy
victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing
eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to
the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain
shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Gounod

Here by Babylon's wave,
Tho' heathen hands have bound us,
Tho' afar from our land
The pains of death surround us;
Zion! thy mem'ry still,
In our hearts we are keeping,
And still we turn to thee,
Our eyes all sad with weeping.

Lord, tho' the victor command—
In captivity sad and lowly,
How shall we raise Thy song so holy,
That we sung in our Fatherland?
Jerusalem, if we forget thee,
Let our hands remember not their pow'r!
Jerusalem, if we forget thee,
Let our tongues be silent from that hour!

Thro' our harps that we hung on the trees,
Goes the low wind, wearily moaning,
Mingles the sad note of the breeze,
With voice as sad of sigh and groaning.
When mad with wine our foe rejoices,
Then unto their altars they throng,
Loud for mirth then they call—A song!—
A song of Zion sing, lift up your voices!

Woe unto thee, Babylon, mighty city,
For the day of thy fall is nigh!
For thee no hope, for thee no pity,
Tho' loud thy wail riseth on high?
Then shalt thou, desolate, forsaken,
Be torn from thy fanes and thy thrones,
In that day shall thy babes be taken,
Taken and dashed against the stones!
Then unto thee, O Babylon, the mighty,
be woe!

Offertory Anthem

Repent ye: the time is fulfilled and the Kingdom of God is at hand; bring forth, therefore, fruits meet for repentance.

The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight His paths, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Thus saith the Lord, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am the Lord, your King. Behold, I will send My messenger and he shall prepare the way before Me; and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, saith the Lord of Hosts. The time is fulfilled, the Kingdom of God is at hand; prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

Lo, He comes with clouds descending,
Once for favored mortals slain;
Thousand, thousand Saints attending
Swell the triumph of His train:
Alleluia!

Christ returns on earth to reign.

Send out Thy light and Thy truth; let them lead me, and let them bring me to Thy holy hill.

O God, then will I go unto Thy altar, and on the harp will we praise Thee, O Lord, Our God.

Why, O soul, are thou sorrowful, and why cast down within me? Still trust the loving kindness of the God of thy strength, and my tongue yet shall praise Him who hath pleaded my cause.

Lord, our God! Thou wilt save thine annointed; Thou wilt hear us from heaven. Though in chariots some put their trust, our trust is in Thee. They are brought down and fallen; but the Lord is our helper; we shall not be afraid.

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness, and lend us Thine aid;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where the infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on His cradle the dew drops are shining,
Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore Him in slumber reclining;
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

Shall we not yield Him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gold would His favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor. Amen.

And wrestle till the break of day.

Yield to me now, for I am weak,
But confident in self-despair,
Speak to my heart in blessings, speak,
Be conquer'd by my instant prayer!
Speak, or Thou never hence shalt move
And tell me if Thy Name is Love.

'Tis Love! 'tis love! Thou died'st for me!
I hear Thy whisper in my heart!
The morning breaks, the shadows flee,
Pure universal Love Thou art!
To me, to all, Thy heart doth move,
Thy Nature and Thy Name is Love.

Te Deum in F

Van Boskerck

Hymns 117, 121.

Offertory Anthem

Noble

Come, O Thou Traveller unknown,
Whom still I hold, but cannot see,
My company before is gone,
And I am left alone with Thee;
With Thee all night I mean to stay,
And wrestle till the break of day.

Yield to me now, for I am weak,
But confident in self-despair,
Speak to my heart in blessings, speak,
Be conquer'd by my instant prayer!
Speak, or Thou never hence shalt move
And tell me if Thy Name is Love.

'Tis Love! 'tis love! Thou died'st for me!
I hear Thy whisper in my heart!
The morning breaks, the shadows flee,
Pure universal Love Thou art!
To me, to all, Thy heart doth move,
Thy Nature and Thy Name is Love.

More love to Thee, O Christ,
More love to Thee!
Hear Thou the prayer I make
On bended knee;
This is my earnest plea,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

Once earthly joy I craved,
Sought peace and rest:
Now Thee alone I seek;
Give what is best;
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee!
More love to Thee!

Then shall my latest breath
Whisper Thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To Thee, Whose blood can cleanse each

O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;

Processional Hymn 68

Pearsall

Hymns 240, 120, 324.

Offertory Anthem

Gounod

There is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

He died that we might be forgiv'n,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heav'n,
Saved by His precious blood.

We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved!
And we must love Him too,
And trust in His redeeming blood,
And try His works to do.

Hymus 445, 223.

Offertory Anthem

Chadwick

Into the woods my Master went
Clean forspent;
Into the woods my Master came,
Forspent with love and shame.

Out of the woods my Master went,
And He was well content;
Out of the woods my Master came,
Content with death and shame.

But the olives they were not blind to
Him,
The little gray leaves were kind to
Him,
The thorn tree had a mind to Him,
When into the woods He came.

When death and shame would woo
Him last,
From under the trees they drew Him
last,
'Twas on a tree they slew Him last,
When out of the woods He came.

Processional Hymn 143

Teschner

Benedicite in D

Kinder

Hymns 145, 240.

Offertory Anthem

Knapp

Open the gates of the Temple,
Strew palms on the Conqueror's way,
Open your hearts, O ye people,
That Jesus may enter today.
Hark from the sick and the dying,
Forgetting their couches of pain,
Voices, glad voices, with rapture
Are swelling a glad refrain.

Open the gates of the Temple,
One grand hallelujah be heard,
Open your hearts to the Saviour,
Make room for the crucified Lord.
Tears and the anguish of midnight
Are lost in the splendor of day,
They who in sorrow once doubted
Are swelling a glad refrain:

"I know that my Redeemer liveth."
Canst thou, my heart, lift up thy voice
and sing:

"I know that my Redeemer liveth,
And because He lives, I, too, shall live."

Recessional Hymn 105

Evening Prayer at Four o'clock

Hymn 150

Maker

Bonum est

Anglican Chants

Offertory Anthem

Reichardt

Wondrous is the story,
How the Saviour came
From His Throne in glory
To the Cross of shame;
Came from sin to save me
And to make me free,
His dear life He gave me
On dark Calvary.

O Thou gentle Jesus,
Loving Lord divine,
Thou whose dying frees us,
Make me truly Thine.
Let Thy Spirit royal
All my being fill;
Keep me ever loyal
To Thy holy will.

Let me never wander,
Let me never stray,
Till to mansions yonder
Thou shalt lead the way.
Then in endless glory
I shall find a place,
E'er to sing the story
Of redeeming grace.

The Saviour King goes forth to die!
Goes forth in all His glory bright!
And angels from the realms on high,
Look down to see the wondrous sight
On, on to Calvary's fateful hill,
Reviled by those He came to bless;
But in His suffering bearing still
The majesty of Righteousness!

With weariness and anguish sore,
On, on to death the Saviour goes!
The Roman helmets flash before,
Behind Him shout exultant foes,
The Son of God goes forth to die!
To yield in pain His mortal breath,
To rob the grave of Victory,
And take, for aye, the sting from death!

Shout, ye high heavens, and laugh, O ye skies,
Earth, high and lowest, rejoicing arise,
And soar, ye black storm-clouds, fast dropping with rain,
Wave, palms, with glory o'er valley and plain!

Come, ye days vernal; awake, all ye flowers,
Spread your cups painted in field or in bowers;
Cowslips and lilies, violet and rose,
From vale and from meadow your beauties disclose.

Sound with full volume, ye voices of song,
Lyres, loud with rapture, the measures prolong;
Jesus hath broken the bonds of the grave,
Scathless, triumphant, the bonds of the grave!
Alleluia! Amen.

The King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;

And He is mine forever.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

And so through all the length of days,
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever. Amen.

Processional Hymn 191

Old Melody

Te Deum in E-flat

Stainer

Hymns 192, 211.

Offertory Anthem

Custance

Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks, so longeth my soul
after Thee, O God. My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God. O, when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

Jerusalem, my happy home,
Name ever dear to me,
When shall my labors have an end,
Thy joys when shall I see?

Apostles, martyrs, prophets, there
Around my Saviour stand;
And soon my friends in Christ below
Will join the glorious band.

When shall these eyes thy heaven-built walls
And pearly gates behold?
Thy bulwarks, with salvation strong,
And streets of shining gold?

Jerusalem, my happy home,
My soul still pants for thee;
Then shall my labors have an end,
Then I thy joys shall see.

Leave us not, neither forsake us, O God of our salvation. In Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go into Heaven.

Thou art gone up on high, Thou hast led captivity captive, Thou hast received gifts for men, yea, even for Thine enemies that the Lord God might dwell among them. Hallelujah, Amen.

Lord! even so; I wait Thy hour!
Jesus, my Saviour, come.

More love to Thee, O Christ!
More love to Thee!
Hear Thou the prayer I make

This is my earnest plea,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,

Processional Hymn 480

Hatton

Hymns 446, 500, 329.

Offertory Anthem

Barnes

I know no life divided,
O Lord of Life, from Thee;
In Thee is life provided
For all mankind and me.

If Thou, my God and Teacher,
Vouchsafe to be my own,
Though poor, I shall be richer
Than monarch on his throne.

I know no death, O Jesus,
Because I live in Thee;
Thy death it is which frees us
From death eternally.

If, while on earth I wander,
My heart is light and blest,
Ah, what shall I be yonder
In perfect peace and rest.

I fear no tribulation,
Since, whatsoe'er it be,
It makes no separation
Between my Lord and me.

O blessed thought in dying,
We go to meet the Lord,
Where there shall be no sighing,
A Kingdom our reward.

Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, His banners go.

Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!

At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee;
On, then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory!

Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise!
Onward, etc.

Onward, then, ye people!
Join our happy throng!
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph song!
Glory, laud, and honor,
Unto Christ the King;
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing.
Onward, etc.

Soldiers of Christ, arise
And put your armor on;
Strong in the strength which God
supplies
Through His eternal Son.

From strength to strength go on,
Wrestle, and fight, and pray;
Tread all the powers of darkness
down,
And win the well-fought day.

Strong in the Lord of Hosts,
And in His mighty power;
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.

That having all things done,
And all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome, through Christ
alone,
And stand complete at last.

Stand then in His great might,
With all His strength endued;
And take to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God.

To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit ever blest,
The One in Three, the Three in One.
Be endless praise addressed.

Jesus, the very thought of Thee,
With sweetness fills the breast;
But sweeter far Thy face to see,
And in Thy presence rest.

O hope of every contrite heart,
O joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind Thou art!
How good to those who seek!

No voice can sing, no heart can
frame,
Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than Jesus' Name,
The Saviour of mankind.

But what to those who find? Ah, this
Nor tongue, nor pen can show;
The love of Jesus, what it is,
None but His loved ones know.

Jesus, our only joy be Thou,
As Thou our prize wilt be;
In Thee be all our glory now,
And through eternity.

Processional Hymn 212

Wade

Te Deum in E

Parker

Hymns 226, 263.

Offertory Anthem

Kinder

Jesus, the very thought of Thee,
With sweetness fills the breast;
But sweeter far Thy face to see,
And in Thy presence rest.

O hope of every contrite heart,
O joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind Thou art!
How good to those who seek!

No voice can sing, no heart can
frame,
Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than Jesus' Name,
The Saviour of mankind.

But what to those who find? Ah, this
Nor tongue, nor pen can show;
The love of Jesus, what it is,
None but His loved ones know.

Jesus, our only joy be Thou,
As Thou our prize wilt be;
In Thee be all our glory now,
And through eternity.

Teach me to pray, Lord God in Heav'n above,
Teach me to know that in Thy boundless love,
Thou seest ev'ry sparrow that may fall,
And givest what is best for all.

Altho' my ways are laid in pastures drear,
Tho' burdens seem more than my soul can bear,
That in Thy love, Thou gavest them to me,
Teach me to put my trust in Thee.

Teach me to pray, to take my woes to Thee,
With faith that Thou wilt from them set me free;
And give me strength to conquer ev'ry day,
Father in Heav'n, teach me to pray!

Great is Jehovah, the Lord!
For Heaven and earth testify to His great
power!

Great is Jehovah! Mighty is His power!
'Tis heard in the fierce raging storm,
In the torrent's loud thundering roar;
'Tis heard in the rustling of leaves in the forest,
Seen in the waving of golden fields,
In the loveliest flowers' gaudy array;

'Tis seen in myriad stars of heaven;
Fierce it sounds in the thunder's loud roll,
And flames in the lightning's brightly
quivering flash;
Yet clearer thy throbbing heart to thee
proclaims Jehovah's power,
The Lord God Almighty!
Look thou praying to Heaven, and hope for
grace and for mercy.

God bade all war to cease;
And now for the waiting nations,
At last there reigneth Peace!

Ring out! sweet bells of Peace!
Ring out! the Lord has sent release!
The world is safe and right is won!

The vict'ry's gained, the task is done!
The clouds of war at last shall cease,
Ring out, sweet bells of Peace!

No more on fields red with battle
Will blood of heroes be shed;
And only birds will sing there,
A requiem to our dead.
For Right over Might has triumphed,
The world has found release;

Great is Jehovah, the Lord!
For Heaven and earth testify to His great
power!
Great is Jehovah! Mighty is His power!
'Tis heard in the fierce raging storm,
In the torrent's loud thundering roar;
'Tis heard in the rustling of leaves in the forest,
Seen in the waving of golden fields,
In the loveliest flowers' gaudy array;

'Tis seen in myriad stars of heaven;
Fierce it sounds in the thunder's loud roll,
And flames in the lightning's brightly
quivering flash;
Yet clearer thy throbbing heart to thee
proclaims Jehovah's power,
The Lord God Almighty!
Look thou praying to Heaven, and hope for
grace and for mercy.

It falls like music on my ear,
Jesus, blessed Jesus.

There is a picture in my heart,
Jesus, blessed Jesus!
It makes the loving tear-drops start,
Jesus, blessed Jesus!

No other is so dear to me
As Jesus, Lamb of Calvary;
His precious life He gave for me,
Jesus, blessed Jesus!

There is a sacred memory,
Jesus, blessed Jesus!
Of Bethlehem to Calvary,
Jesus, blessed Jesus.

There is a home of love divine,
Jesus, blessed Jesus!
I am so glad that He is mine,

Offertory Anthem

Warren

O glorious, living, moving star,
We've travel'd long and journey'd far,
We've crossed both land and sea.
Now guide us to the Prince of Peace,
Our doubts dispel, our fears make cease,
Bright star, we follow thee.

We bring our gold to crown the King,
The Babe, around whom angels sing
And worship evermore.
The frankincense and myrrh we give
To Him who evermore will live,
To Him whom we adore.

O'er Bethlehem the star stands still.
'Twas here the angels sang good will,
And holy peace was born.
'Tis here we find the Holy One,
Our Saviour Christ, dear Mary's Son,
This blessed, blessed morn. Amen.

Processional Hymn 72

Te Deum in B-flat

Stanford

Offertory Anthem

Dickinson

"To Bethlehem did they go,
The shepherds three:
To see whe'r it were so or no,
Whether Christ were born to set men free."

Masters, in this hall,
Hear ye news today
Brought over sea,
And ever you I pray.
Nowell! Sing we clear!
Holpen are all folks on earth,
Born is God's Son so dear.
Then to Bethlehem town
Did the Shepherds go,
And in a sorry place
Heard the oxen low.

Therein did they see
A sweet and goodly May,
And a fair old man,
Upon the straw she lay,
And a little child
On her arm had she.
"Wot ye who this is?"
Said the hinds to me.
Ox and ass him know
Kneeling on their knee:
Wondrous joy had I
This little Babe to see.
This is Christ the Lord,
Masters be ye glad!
Christmas is come in
And no folk should be sad.

Sleep sweetly, Babe of Bethlehem,
For angels guard Thee now,
And God, the Lord, has set His seal
In love upon Thy brow.
Sleep sweetly, mother, meek and mild,
Of women e'er most blest,
O Mary, thou hast borne the Child,
Who brings the weary rest.

Sleep sweetly, Babe of Bethlehem,
Though shadows are to come;
They show not yet across the floor,
As slowly sets the sun.
Sleep sweetly, mother; for thy Child
Shall "draw all men to Him."
Though kingdoms shall in dust decay,
His fame shall ne'er grow dim.

Sleep sweetly through the starry night!
Dream, Thou, of those blest realms of
light!
From whence Thou camest to this earth
To bring redemption by Thy birth.

Broaden our minds and hearts the while,
Help us through tears still, Lord, to smile!

O Christ, the living Lord of Light,
Teach us to learn to live aright,
With poverty to bravely bear,
With riches to our bounties share.
Whate'er our lot, however born,
Save us from arrogance and scorn.

O Christ, the living Lord of Light,
When comes to us the last long night,
Be by our side and guide our bark
As we are journeying through the dark.

And when we reach our resting place
Then may we meet Thee face to face!

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me
abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help the helpless, oh, abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass
away,
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour,
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's
power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can
be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide
with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy
victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing
eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to
the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain
shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Te Deum in F

Coleridge-Taylor

Hymns 117, 466.

Offertory Anthem

Kinder

Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppress.
I know not, oh, I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiancy of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever
Are clad in robes of white.

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed

Hymn 393

Mason

Offertory Anthem

Roma

I come to Thee at last, oh Lord, for rest,
With wasted years, with heart and mind oppressed;
And now Thy promise is to me so sweet,
That I shall find forgiveness at Thy feet.

My day that seemed to break so bright and clear,
Brought only darkness, now the night draws near;
The evening hours alone are left to me,
Such as they are, I consecrate to Thee.

Seeing Thy light, Lord, I had turned away,
But oh! the need I have of Thee today;
With contrite heart, lowly on bended knee
Begging forgiveness, Lord, I come to Thee.

Noble

Fierce was the wild billow,
Dark was the night,
Oars labor'd heavily,
Foam glimmer'd white.
Trembled the mariners,
Peril was nigh;
Then saith the God of God,
"Peace! It is I!"

Ridge of the mountain wave,
Lower thy crest,
Wail of Euroclydon,
Be thou at rest;
Sorrow can never be,
Darkness must fly,
When saith the Light of Light,
"Peace! It is I!"

Jesus, deliverer,
Come Thou to me,
Soothe Thou my voyaging
Over life's sea;
Thou, when the storm of Death
Roars sweeping by,
Whisper, O Truth of Truth,
"Peace! It is I!"

And thus He bound me to Him.
And 'round my heart still closely twine
Those ties which naught can sever,
For I am His, and He is mine,
Forever and forever.

Naught that I have my own I call,
I hold it for the Giver;
My heart, my strength, my life, my all,
Are His, and His forever.

I've found a Friend; oh such a Friend!
All pow'r to Him is given;
To guard me on my onward course,
And bring me safe to heaven.
The eternal glories gleam afar,
To nerve my faint endeavor;
So now to watch, to work, to war,
And then to rest forever.

Grant us, as we come to die,

Grant us in our later years
Light at evening-time.

Processional Hymn 121

Filitz

Hymns 233, 227, 333.

Offertory Anthem

Noble

Fierce was the wild billow,
Dark was the night,
Oars labor'd heavily,
Foam glimmer'd white.
Trembled the mariners,
Peril was nigh;
Then saith the God of God,
"Peace! It is I!"

Ridge of the mountain wave,
Lower thy crest,
Wail of Euroclydon,
Be thou at rest;
Sorrow can never be,
Darkness must fly,
When saith the Light of Light,
"Peace! It is I!"

Jesus, deliverer,
Come Thou to me,
Soothe Thou my voyaging
Over life's sea;
Thou, when the storm of Death
Roars sweeping by,
Whisper, O Truth of Truth,
"Peace! It is I!"

The climbing leads to heights above,
When once we feel God's spirit nigh,

Processional Hymn 136

Hemy

Hymns 152, 117, 336.

Offertory Anthem

Chadwick

Into the woods my Master went
Clean forspent;
Into the woods my Master came,
Forspent with love and shame.

Out of the woods my Master went,
And He was well content;
Out of the woods my Master came,
Content with death and shame.

But the olives they were not blind to
Him,
The little gray leaves were kind to
Him,
The thorn tree had a mind to Him,
When into the woods He came

When death and shame would woo
Him last,
From under the trees they drew Him
last,
'Twas on a tree they slew Him last,
When out of the woods He came.

Around our way the palm trees and the flow'rs!
Send forth their perfume on our festal day;
Jesus appears, He comes to dry our tears,
Already crowds approach and homage pay.

All nations sing and chant His praise,
Now let your voices join with ours and anthems raise!
Hosanna! Glory to God!
Blessed is He Who comes bringing salvation!

His voice is heard, and nations at the sound
Have now regained that freedom sought in vain;
Humanity shall everywhere abound,
For light to all the world is given again.

Rejoice e'en thou, saints Jerusalem!
Thy children now sing the Redeemer's name;
For by His grace the God of Bethlehem
Brings them new faith, and hope confirms the same.

"Behold, thy King draws near the city gates!
Go forth, Jerusalem, with shout and song."
And, moved as by one thought, the people rise,
And hasten forth, a glad, tumultuous throng.

From out their peaceful village
Along the sunlit way,
The Prince of Peace leads onward
A pilgrim band this day.

Then lo! with shout triumphant
They hear the hillside ring
With shouts of crowds that hasten
To greet their Prophet King.
Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna!

Lord! now as we meet Thee
Sing we Hosanna!

Saviour, we greet Thee,
Redeemer, Lord and King!

He rides as Israel's rulers
Once rode in kingly state.
The palm leaves wave around Him,
The people throng the gate.

Rejoice, O Golden City!
Let loud Hosannas ring,
While through thy streets He rideth,
Thy Saviour and thy King.
Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna!

Offertory Anthem

Foot

Still, still with Thee, when purple morning
breaketh,
When the bird waketh and the shadows flee;
Fairer than morning, lovelier than the day-
light,
Dawns the sweet consciousness, I am with
Thee!

Still, still with Thee, as to each newborn
morning
A fresh and solemn splendor still is given,
So doth this blessed consciousness, awak-
ing,
Breathe each day nearness unto Thee and Heaven.

Alone with Thee amid the mystic shadows.
The solemn hush of nature newly born;
Alone with Thee in breathless adoration,
In the calm dew and freshness of the morn.

When sinks the soul, subdued by toll, to slumber,
Its closing eye looks up to Thee in prayer;
Sweet the repose beneath Thy wings o'er-
shading,
But sweeter still to wake and find Thee
there.

As in the dawning o'er the waveless ocean
The image of the morning star doth rest,
So in this stillness Thou beholdest only
Thine image in the waters of my breast.

So shall it be at last in that bright morn-
ing,
When the soul waketh and life's shadows
flee;
Oh, in that hour, fairer than daylight dawn-
ing,
Shall rise the glorious thought, I am with Thee!

Jesus, the very thought of Thee,
With sweetness fills the breast;
But sweeter far Thy face to see,
And in Thy presence rest.

O hope of every contrite heart,
O joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind Thou art
How good to those who seek!

No voice can sing, no heart can
frame,
Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than Jesus' Name,
The Saviour of mankind.

But what to those who find? Ah, this
Nor tongue, nor pen can show;
The love of Jesus, what it is,
None but His loved ones know.

Offertory Anthem

Foote

Still, still with Thee, when purple morning
breaketh,
When the bird waketh and the shadows flee;
Fairer than morning, lovelier than the day-
light,
Dawns the sweet consciousness, I am with
Thee!

Still, still with Thee, as to each newborn
morning
A fresh and solemn splendor still is given,
So doth this blessed consciousness, awak-
ing,
Breathe each day nearness unto Thee and Heaven.

Alone with Thee amid the mystic shadows,
The solemn hush of nature newly born;
Alone with Thee in breathless adoration,
In the calm dew and freshness of the morn.

When sinks the soul, subdued by toil, to slumber,
Its closing eye looks up to Thee in prayer;
Sweet the repose beneath Thy wings o'er-
shading,
But sweeter still to wake and find Thee
there.

As in the dawning o'er the waveless ocean
The image of the morning star doth rest,
So in this stillness Thou beholdest only
Thine image in the waters of my breast.

So shall it be at last in that bright morning,
When the soul waketh and life's shadows
flee;
Oh, in that hour, fairer than daylight dawn-
ing,
Shall rise the glorious thought, I am with Thee!

Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppress.
I know not, oh, I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiancy of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever
Are clad in robes of white.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,

Lo, out from the stars of midnight,
God bade all war to cease;
And now for the waiting nations,
At last there reigneth Peace!

The victor's gained, the task is done!
The clouds of war at last shall cease,
Ring out, sweet bells of Peace!

No more on fields red with battle
Will blood of heroes be shed;
And only birds will sing there,
A requiem to our dead.
For Right over Might has triumphed,
The world has found release;
At last! all our pray'rs are answered,
At last! there's blessed Peace!

Blood of Christ, so rich and free,
Grace of God, so strong and bound-

Magnify it all in me.

Pass me not, O gracious Father,
Sinful though my heart may be;—
Thou might'st leave me, but the

Let Thy mercy light on me.

Offertory Anthem

Hosanna in the highest!

Who is this that cometh from Edom? Who is this with dyed garments from Bozrah? This that is glorious in his apparel, traveling in the greatness of his strength.

I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me. I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; for the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

And when as Judge Thou drawest nigh,
The secrets of all hearts to try,

O come to my heart, Lord Jesus!
There is room in my heart for Thee.

The foxes found rest, and the birds had their nest
In the shade of the forest tree;
But Thy couch was the sod, O Thou Son of God,
In the desert of Galilee.
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus!
There is room in my heart for Thee.

When the heavens shall ring, and the angels sing
At Thy coming to victory,
Let Thy voice call me home, saying, "Yet

There is room at My side for thee."
And my heart shall rejoice, Lord Jesus,

To Bethlehem did they go,
The shepherds three:
To see wher it were so or no,
Whether Christ were born to set

Masters, in this hall,
Hear ye news today
Brought over sea,
And ever you I pray.
Nowell! Sing we clear!
Holpen are all folks on earth,
Born is God's Son so dear.
Then to Bethlehem town
Did the Shepherds go,
And in a sorry place
Heard the oxen low.

Therein did they see
A sweet and goodly May,
And a fair old man.
Upon the straw she lay,
And a little child
On her arm had she.
"Wot ye who this is?"
Said the hinds to me.
Ox and ass him know
Kneeling on their knee:
Wondrous joy had I
This little Babe to see.
This is Christ the Lord,
Masters be ye glad!
Christmas is come in
And no folk should be sad.

Offertory Anthem

Sleep sweetly, Babe of Bethlehem,
For angels guard Thee now,
And God, the Lord, has set His seal
In love upon Thy brow.
Sleep sweetly, mother, meek and mild,
Of women e'er most blest,
O Mary, thou has borne the Child,
Who brings the weary rest.

Sleep sweetly, Babe of Bethlehem,
Though shadows are to come;
They show not yet across the floor
As slowly sets the sun.
Sleep sweetly, mother; for thy Child
Shall "draw all men to Him."
Though kingdoms shall in dust decay,
His fame shall ne'er grow dim.

Sleep sweetly through the starry night!
Dream, Thou, of those blest realms of
light!
From whence Thou camest to this earth
To bring redemption by Thy birth.

Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where the infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on His cradle the dew drops are shining,
Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore Him in slumber reclining;
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

Shall we not yield Him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation,

Offertory Anthem

Lovely appear over the mountains
The feet of them that preach and bring good news of peace.
Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down.
Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.
Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,
In the brightness of joy fade away and are gone.
In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding,
Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground;
Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound:
Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding.
Then the timorous birds,—e'en the turtle-dove meek,—
Shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless beak.

Lead us, O Christ, when all is gone,

With me; fast falls the eventide;
Gloom deepens; Lord, with me
abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour,
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's
power?

Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can
be?

Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide
with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy
victory?

I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing
eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to
the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain
shadows flee:
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Come, O Thou Traveller unknown,
Whom still I hold but cannot see,
My company before is gone,
And I am left alone with Thee;
With Thee all night I mean to stay,
And wrestle till the break of day.

Yield to me now, for I am weak,
But confident in self-despair,
Speak to my heart in blessings, speak
Be conquer'd by my instant prayer,
Speak, or Thou never hence shalt go,
And tell me if Thy Name is Love.

'Tis Love! 'tis love! Thou died'st for me!
I hear Thy whisper in my heart!
The morning breaks, the shadows flee,
Pure universal Love Thou art!

Sought peace and rest:
Now Thee alone I seek;
Give what is best;
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee!
More love to Thee!

Then shall my latest breath
Whisper Thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

Processional Hymn 536

Hymns 213, 241, 333.

Offertory Anthem

More love to Thee, O Christ,
More love to Thee!
Hear Thou the prayer I make
On bended knee;
This is my earnest plea,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

Once earthly joy I craved,
Sought peace and rest;
Now Thee alone I seek;
Give what is best;
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

Then shall my latest breath
Whisper Thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

Mr. Lemare, formerly of London, now identified with the musical life of this country, has employed this tune in the construction of a very early composition for the organ. A somewhat lengthy Introduction is given by the Theme; then follow six Variations and a Fugue.

Offertory Anthem

O Thou Traveller unknown,
Whom still I hold, but cannot see,
Whom my before is gone,
I am left alone with Thee;
I will all night I mean to stay,
And wrestle till the break of day.

Yield to me now, for I am weak,
But confident in self-despair,
Speak to my heart in blessings, speak,
Be conquer'd by my instant prayer!
Speak, or Thou never hence shalt move
And tell me if Thy Name is Love.

'Tis Love! 'tis love! Thou died'st for me!
I hear Thy whisper in my heart!
The morning breaks, the shadows flee,
Pure universal Love Thou art!
To me, to all, Thy heart doth move,
Thy Nature and Thy Name is Love.

Offertory Anthem

Into the woods my Master went
Clean forspent;
Into the woods my Master came,
Forspent with love and shame.

But the olives they were not blind to
Him,
The little gray leaves were kind to
Him,
The thorn tree had a mind to Him,
When into the woods He came.

Out of the woods my Master went
And He was well content;
Out of the woods my Master came,
Content with death and shame.

When death and shame were
Him last,
From under the trees they drew
last,
'Twas on a tree they slew Him
When out of the woods He came.

Processional Hymn 145

Hymns 328, 378, 333.

Offertory Anthem

Around our way the palm trees and the flow'rs!

Send forth their perfume on our festal day;
Jesus appears, He comes to dry our tears,
Already crowds approach and homage pay.

All nations sing and chant His praise,
Now let your voices join with ours and anthems raise!
Hosanna! Glory to God!
Blessed is He Who comes bringing salvation!

His voice is heard, and nations at
Have now regained that freedom
vain;
Humanity shall everywhere abound,
For light to all the world is given

Rejoice e'en thou, saints Jerusalem!
Thy children now sing the Redeem-
name;
For by His grace the God of Bethlehem
Brings them new faith, and hope
the same.

Sanctus in F

Recessional Hymn 223

Hymn 145

Hymn 144

Offertory Anthem

Wondrous is the story,
How the Saviour came
From His Throne in glory
To the Cross of shame;
Came from sin to save me
And to make me free,
His dear life He gave me
On dark Calvary.

O Thou gentle Jesus,
Loving Lord divine,
Thou whose dying frees us,
Make me truly Thine.
Let Thy Spirit royal
All my being fill;
Keep me ever loyal
To Thy holy will.

Let me never wander,
Let me never stray,
Till to mansions yonder
Thou shalt lead the way.
Then in endless glory
I shall find a place,
E'er to sing the story
Of redeeming grace.

Offertory Anthem

Maunder

Saviour King goes forth to die!
Forth in all His glory bright!
Falls from the realms on high,
Down to see the wondrous sight,
To Calvary's fateful hill,
Led by those He came to bless;
His suffering bearing still Majesty of Righteousness!

With weariness and anguish sore,
On, on to death the Saviour goes!
The Roman helmets flash before,
Behind Him shout exultant foes,
The Son of God goes forth to die!
To yield in pain His mortal breath,
To rob the grave of Victory,
And take, for aye, the sting from death!

Offertory Anthem

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters;
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in
The paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of
The shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
For Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence
Of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and
Mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
Long lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
Where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

Wise and foolish oft I strayed,
Yet in love He sought me,
On His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

Bar

I know no life divided,
O Lord of Life, from Thee;
In Thee is life provided
For all mankind and me

If Thou, my God and Teacher,
Vouchsafe to be my own,
Though poor, I shall be richer
Than monarch on his throne.

I know no death. O Jesus,
Because I live in Thee;
Thy death it is which frees us
From death eternally.

If, while on earth I wander,
My heart is light and blest,
Ah, what shall I be yonder
In perfect peace and rest.

I fear no tribulation,
Since, whatso'er it be,
It makes no separation
Between my Lord and me.

O blessed thought in dying,
We go to meet the Lord,
Where there shall be no sighing,
A Kingdom our reward.

Litany and Holy Communion at Eleven o'clock

Processional Hymn 37

Hymns 45, 263, 334.

Offertory Anthem

The King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside Thy rod and staff my comfort
Thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight
Thy unction grace bestoweth,
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth.

And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever.

Sanctus in F

Offertory Anthem

I sought the Lord and He heard me; yea, He deliver'd me out of all my fear.

For He hath delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain.

Offertory Anthem

Smart

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters;
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in
The paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of
The shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
For Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence
Of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and
Mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

From that dear throng?"

No weeping yonder!
All fled away!
While here I wander
Each weary day,
And sigh as I ponder
My long, long stay.

No partings yonder!
Time and space never
Again shall sunder.
Hearts cannot sever:
Dearer and fonder,
Hands clasp for ever.

None wanting yonder!
Brought by the Lamb,
All gathered under
The ever-green palm;
Loud as night's thunder
Ascends the glad psalm.

Processional Hymn 529

Hymns 45, 240, 333.

Offertory Anthem

I sought the Lord and He heard me; yea, He deliver'd me all my fear.

For He hath delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears and my feet from falling.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be more pain.

Hymn 493

Offertory Anthem

My Homeland, oh my Homeland,
The land of souls free-born;
No gloomy night is known there,
But aye the fadeless morn;
I'm sighing for that country,
My heart is aching here;
There's no pain in the Homeland,
To which I'm drawing near.

My Lord is in the Homeland,
With angels bright and fair;
No sinful thing or evil
Can ever enter there.

The music of the ransomed
Is ringing in my ears,
And when I think of Homeland
My eyes are filled with tears.

My loved ones in the Homeland
Are waiting me to come,
Where neither death nor sorrow
Invade their holy home.
O dear, dear native country!
O rest and peace above!
Christ bring us to the Homeland
Of His eternal love.

'Tis heard in the rustling of leaves in the

Seen in the waving of golden fields,
In the loveliest flowers' gaudy array;

'Tis seen in myriad stars of heaven,
Fierce it sounds in the thunder,

Offertory Anthem

What of the night, O watchman?
Turn to the East thine eyes,
And say is there any token
Of the dawning in the skies?
Or do the shadows linger,
Thy lips, are they sad and dumb,
With never a word of gladness
That the tarrying morn is come?

Then answer'd the patient watchman
From the mountain's lonely height,
To the waiting souls in the valley:
I can see the breaking light;
There's a glow on the far horizon
That is growing more wide and clear,
And soon shall the sun be flinging
His splendours both far and near.

What of the night, O Watchman?
Rises to Thee our cry;
Prophet divine of Nazareth,
Make to our hearts reply:
Over the earth's wild warfare
Comes not a time more
Swords into plough-shares beaten,
Peace throned ev'rywhere?

Wait, said the Heav'nly Watchman,
Let not thy spirit quail,
Strife shall not be eternal,
Harmony shall prevail;
Battle clouds all shall scatter,
Hatred shall be outcast,
Love's ever broad'ning glory

Offertory Anthem

A white dove flies at the dawning,
An angel sings o'er the sea;
"This is a wondrous morning
For freedom and Liberty!"
Lo, out from the stars of midnight,
God bade all war to cease;
And now for the waiting nations,
At last there reigneth Peace!

Ring out! sweet bells of Peace!
Ring out! the Lord has sent release!
The world is safe and right is won!

The vict'ry's gained, the task is done,
The clouds of war at last shall cease,
Ring out, sweet bells of Peace!

No more on fields red with battle
Will blood of heroes be shed;
And only birds will sing there,
A requiem to our dead,
For Right over Might has triumphed,
The world has found release;
At last! all our prayers are answered,
At last! there's blessed Peace!

Watchman, what of the night?
Do the dews of the morning fall?
Have the orient skies a border of
light,
Or the fringe of a funeral pall?

That night of sorrow thy soul
May surely prepare to meet;
But away shall the clouds of thy
heaviness roll,
And the morning of joy be sweet.

Light is fast waning on high,
Soon shall the darkness flee:
The morn shall spread o'er the
blushing sky,
And bright shall its glories be.

But, watchman, what of the night?
When the arrow of death is sped?
And the grave, which no glimmering
star can light,
Shall be my sleeping bed?

Watchman, what of the night,
When sorrow and pain are mine?
The pleasures of life so sweet
and bright
Longer around me shine?

That night is near, and the cheerless
tomb
Shall keep thy body in store,
Till the morn of eternity rise on the
gloom
And night shall be no more.

Lovely appear over the mountains
The feet of them that preach and bring good news of peace.
Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down.
Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.
Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,
In the brightness of joy fade away and are gone.
In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding,
Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground;
Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound:
Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding.
Then the timorous birds,—e'en the turtle-dove meek,—
Shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless beak.

Offertory Anthem

Say, watchman, what of the night?
Do the dews of the morning fall?
Have the Orient skies a border of light,
Like the fringe of a funeral pall?

The night is fast waning on high,
And soon shall the darkness flee:
And the morn shall spread o'er the
blushing sky,
And bright shall its glories be.

But, watchman, what of the night,
When sorrow and pain are mine?
And the pleasures of life so sweet and bright
No longer around me shine?

That night of sorrow thy
May surely prepare to meet:
But away shall the clouds of thy ness roll,
And the morning of joy be

But, watchman, what of the
When the arrow of death
And the grave, which no gl can light,
Shall be my sleeping bed.

That night is near, and tomb
Shall keep thy body in Till the morn of eternity
gloom
And night shall be no more

'Twas on a peaceful, starry night
In Bethlehem of old,
An angel came and tidings glad
To watching shepherds told;
With joyful haste they sped away
Ere came the early morn.
O wondrous night when Christ the Lord
In Bethlehem was born!

Led by a star wise men there
Their costly gifts to bring
In swaddling clothes and poor
They found our Heavenly King
But hallowed was His sacred
Who later wore the thorn
O wondrous night when Christ
Lord
Was in a manger born!

With glad and thankful hearts we praise
And magnify His Name,
Who, King of kings and Lord of lords,
Among the lowly came.
O Prince of Peace, we worship Thee
And bless the holy morn,
When angel choirs glad tidings bare
And Christ the Lord was born.

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness, and lend us Thine aid;

Guide where the infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on His cradle the dew drops are shining,
Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore Him in slumber reclining;
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

Shall we not yield Him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gold would His favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor. Amen.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?

When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Though a host of men be laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid; and though there rose up war against me, yet will I put my trust in Him.

Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto Thee; have mercy upon me and hear me.

Thou hast been my succor, leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

Onward, then ye people!
Join our happy throng!
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph song!
Glory, laud, and honor,
Unto Christ the King;
This through countless ages

My heart may low be laid;
But God is round about me,
And can I be dismayed?

Wherever He may guide
No want shall turn me
My Shepherd is beside me
And nothing can I lack
His wisdom ever waketh,
His sight is never dim.
He knows the way He
And I will walk with

Green pastures are before me,
Which yet I have not seen;
Bright skies will soon be o'er me,
Where the dark clouds have been.

Offertory Anthem

Weary of earth, and laden with my sin,
I look at heaven and long to enter in:
But there no evil thing may find a home:
And yet I hear a voice that bids me "Come."

So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand
In the pure glory of that holy land?
Before the whiteness of that throne appear?
Yet there are hands stretched out to draw
me near.

The while I fain would tread the way.
Evil is ever with me day by day
Yet on mine ears the gracious
"Repent, confess, thou shalt be all."

It is the voice of Jesus that I hear
His are the hands stretched out
me near.
And His the blood that can for
And set me faultless there before.

Nought can I bring, dear Lord, for all I
owe,
Yet let my full heart what it can bestow,
Like Mary's gift, let my devotion prove,
Forgiven greatly, how I greatly love.

of earth, and laden with my sin,
and at heaven and long to enter in:
there no evil thing may find a home:
I hear a voice that bids me "Come."

The while I fain would tread the heavenly way.
Evil is ever with me day by day;
Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall,
"Repent, confess, thou shalt be loosed from all."

I am, how dare I hope to stand in the glory of that holy land?
The whiteness of that throne appear?
Are hands stretched out to draw
me near.

It is the voice of Jesus that I hear;
His are the hands stretched out to draw
me near.
And His the blood that can for all atone,
And set me faultless there before the throne.

Nought can I bring, dear Lord, for all I

owe,
Yet let my full heart what it can bestow,
Like Mary's gift, let my devotion prove,
Forgiven greatly, how I greatly love.

Who died to save us all.

We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us

He died that we might be forgiven
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heaven

There was no other good enough

The little gray leaves were kind to
Him,
The thorn-tree had a mind to Him,
When into the woods He came.

Out of the woods my Master went
And He was well content
Out of the woods my Master came,
Content with death and shame.

When death and shame would own

Processional Hymn 143

Benedicite in A

Hymns 145, 486.

Offertory Anthem

Open the gates of the Temple,
Strew palms on the Conqueror's way,
Open your hearts, O ye people,
That Jesus may enter today.
Hark from the sick and the dying,
Forgetting their couches of pain,
Voices, glad voices, with rapture
Are swelling a glad refrain.

Open the gates of the Temple,
One grand hallelujah be heard
Open your hearts to the Saviour
Make room for the crucified Lord
Tears and the anguish of martyrdom
Are lost in the splendor of God
They who in sorrow once doubted
Are swelling a glad refrain:

"I know that my Redeemer liveth."
Canst thou, my heart, lift up thy voice
and sing:
"I know that my Redeemer liveth,
And because He lives, I, too, shall live"

Spirit, on Thy care,
O Saviour, I recline;
Thou wilt not leave me to despair
For Thou art love divine.

Thy Spirit, in our hearts,
Is whispering, Sinner, come;
Lord! even so; I wait Thy hour!
Jesus, my Saviour, come.

More love to Thee, O Christ!
More love to Thee!
Hear Thou the prayer I make
On bended knee;
This is my earnest plea,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

Then shall my latest breath
Whisper Thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ to Thee,
More love to Thee! Amen.

A man is dead,
Yet is He living,
Christians, believe,
All honor giving.
Mourn ye no more,
Joyful behold
Bright seraphim
In their glory untold.

In the heavenly regions
Hear melodious legions,
Him forever they bless,
Jesus Christ they confess.
Christ, my heart thou enfoldest,
By Thy grace I see Thy face.
Hosanna! All shall raise
Hosanna, glory, praise!

Night darkly veiled all the day's glory,
When on the earth closed the sad story;
Now doth the sun beam bright once more,
While all the world doth in wonder adore.
In the midst of the angels,
The angels and archangels,
See the Victor on high,
Resplendent in the sky.

Sing of love my Shepherd is,
Thy goodness faileth never;
Nothing lack if I am His,
He is mine forever.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

The streams of living water flow
To ransom soul He leadeth,
Where the verdant pastures grow,
To food celestial feedeth.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

Use and foolish oft I strayed,
Yet in love He sought me,
On His shoulder gently laid,
Home, rejoicing, brought me.

And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

The King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, be still
Thy rod and staff my comfort still
Thy cross before to guide me

Thou spread'st a table in my sight
Thy unction grace bestows
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice flows

And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever.

Jerusalem, my happy home,
Name ever dear to me,
When shall my labors have an end,
Thy joys when shall I see?

Apostles, martyrs, prophets
Around my Saviour
And soon my friends
Will join the glorious

When shall these eyes thy heaven-built walls
And pearly gates behold?
Thy bulwarks, with salvation strong,
And streets of shining gold?

Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all Thy quickening powers;
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.

In vain we tune our lifeless songs,
In vain we strive to rise,
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.

See how we grovel here below,
Fond of these earthly toys:
Our souls, how heavily they go,
To reach eternal joys.

Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all Thy quickening powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

Processional Hymn 4

Te Deum in G

Hymns 314, 42.

Offertory Anthem

What of the night, O watchman?
Turn to the East thine eyes,
And say is there any token
Of the dawning in the skies?
Or do the shadows linger,
Thy lips, are they sad and dumb,
With never a word of gladness
That the tarrying morn is come?

Then answer'd the patient watchman
From the mountain's lonely height,
To the waiting souls in the valley:
I can see the breaking light;
There's a glow on the far horizon
That is growing more wide and
clear,
And soon shall the sun be flinging
His splendours both far and near.

What of the night, O Watchman?
Rises to Thee our cry:
Prophet divine of Nazareth,
Make to our hearts reply.
Over the earth's wild warfare
Comes not a time more
Swords into plough-shares
Peace throned ev'rywhere?

Wait, said the Heav'nly Watchman
Let not thy spirit quail,
Strife shall not be eternal,
Harmony shall prevail;
Battle clouds all shall scatter,
Hatred shall be outcast,
Love's ever broad'ning glory
Break on the world at last!

With me; fast falls the eventide;
Darkness deepens; Lord, with me
abide;
Thy helpers fail, and comforts flee,
The helpless, oh, abide with me.

Its close ebbs out life's little day;
Our joys grow dim, its glories pass
away,
Age and decay in all around I see;
Who changeth not, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour,
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's
power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can
be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide
with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy
victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing
eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to
the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain
shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

It is high time to awake out of sleep, for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

Offertory Anthem

From "The Redemption"

Lovely appear over the mountains
The feet of them that preach and bring good news of peace.
Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down.
Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.
Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,
In the brightness of joy fade away and are gone.
In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding,
Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground;
Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound:
Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding.
Then the timorous birds,—e'en the turtle-dove meek,—
Shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless beak.

The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill made low: the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain: and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. The voice said, Cry! What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower that is in the field. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the word of our God shall stand forever. AMEN.

Gevaert

Jesus, gentle babe,
our sweet and holy,
born on Christmas night,
in manger lowly shepherds first, by angels led,
in worship round that humble bed.

Lowly, meek and tender,
Veiling heav'nly splendor
In that manger stall;
Lamblike there reposing,
Heav'nly love disclosing,
Bringing peace to all.

born in adoration,
offering their oblation,
with and frankincense and gold,
their gifts unfold.
For this Child, meek and mild,
the King of kings foretold.

Jesus, gentle babe,
Taught by mother mild,
Learnt to lisp a prayer,
E'en as any child;
Learnt his infant voice to raise
Joyfully to God in praise.

For angels in chorus sweet have sung, Noel!
The earth's glad some voice repeat the song they swell!
Hail Noel! Noel!
Gloria we all Noel!

And in accents tender,
Tunefully to render
Holy song and carol sweet,
For an off'ring meet.
So we may day by day
Follow in His holy way.

Come, my soul, with gladness
Banish fear and sadness,
Now no longer mourn;
For to earthly mother
Jesus Christ, thy brother,
Christ, the Lord, is born!

Processional Hymn 75

Te Deum in B-flat

Offertory Anthem

While shepherds watched their flocks
by night,
All seated on the ground,
The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.

"Fear not," said he, for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind;
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind.

"To you, in David's town, this day
Is born of David's line,
The Saviour, Who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:

"The heavenly Babe you there find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapt in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid."

Thus spake the seraph; and forth
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God, who then Addressed their joyful song

"All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace;
Good will henceforth from heaven men
Begin and never cease." Amen

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness, and lend us Thine aid;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where the infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on His cradle the dew drops are shining,
Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore Him in slumber reclining;
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

Shall we not yield Him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gold would His favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor. Amen.

Morning Prayer and Ante-Communion at Eleven o'clock

Processional Hymn 497

Te Deum in F

Hymns 101, 241.

Offertory Anthem

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness, and lend us Thine aid;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where the infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on His cradle the dew drops are shining,
Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore Him in slumber reclining;
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

Shall we not yield Him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gold would His favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor. Amen.

Though an host of men were laid against me, yet will not my

Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppress.
I know not, oh, I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiancy of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever
Are clad in robes of white.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he
that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread and your labor for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live: and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
Behold I freely give
The living water; thirsty one,
Stoop down, and drink and live.
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream:
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived

Onward, Christian soldiers,

Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, His banners go.
Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!

At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee;
On, then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory!

Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise!
Onward, etc.

Onward, then, ye people!
Join our happy throng!
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph song!

Unto Christ the King;
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing.

Offertory Anthem

Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice opprest.
I know not, oh, I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiancy of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

There is the throne of David,
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph.
The song of them that feast
And they, who with their Leader
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever
Are clad in robes of white.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

Hymn 117

Offertory Anthem

Weary and sad at heart, bent 'neath thy load:
Heavy is thy burden, dark is thy road:
Then, in thy loneliness, help draweth
nigh;
Jesus, kind Shepherd, will hear thy cry.

Beside still waters, He leadeth thee;
His love will guard thee tenderly;
Thy grief shall pass, thy doubt shall
flee;
Beside still waters He leadeth thee.

Lost in the darkness, far from the goal:
No voice to cheer thee, none to sole:
Broken in spirit, hope seems in vain;
Then, in thy hour of need, joy comes again.

Fear then, oh pilgrim, dark though the
way:
Press on and faint not; Soon comes the day:
"Lead on, kind Shepherd," this be thy
prayer:
Jesus will guide thee to pastures fair

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he
that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread and your labor for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live: and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
Behold I freely give
The living water; thirsty one,
Stoop down, and drink and live.
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream:
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived
And now I live in Him.

Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all Thy life receive;
Hasten to return and never,

Take my hands, and let them move

Take my feet, and let them be
Swift and beautiful for Thee;
Take my voice, and let me sing
Always, only, for my King.

Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from Thee;
Take my silver and my gold,
Not a mite would I withhold.

Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as Thou shalt choose.

Take my will and make it Thine,
It shall be no longer mine;
Take my heart, it is Thine own,
It shall be Thy royal throne.

Take my love, my Lord, I pour heavenly love abiding,

No change my heart shall fear,
And safe is such confiding,
For nothing changes here.
The storm may roar without me,
My heart may low be laid;
But God is round about me,
And can I be dismayed?

Wherever He may guide me,
No want shall turn me back;
My Shepherd is beside me,
And nothing can I lack.
His wisdom ever waketh,
His sight is never dim;
He knows the way He taketh,
And I will walk with Him.

Green pastures are before me,
Which yet I have not seen;
Bright skies will soon be o'er me,
Where the dark clouds have been.

Offertory Anthem

Oh, for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame,
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from Thy throne,
And worship only Thee.

Return, O holy Dove, return,

Processional Hymn 127

Benedicite in G

Hymns 313, 222.

Offertory Anthem

O Lamb of God still keep me
Near to Thy wounded side!
'Tis only there in safety
And peace I can abide.
What foes and snares surround me!
What doubts and fears within!
The grace that sought and found me,
Alone can keep me clean.

'Tis only in Thee hiding,
I feel my life secure;
Only in Thee abiding,
The conflict can endure;
Thine arm the victory gaineth
O'er every hateful foe;
Thy love my heart sustaineth
In all its care and woe.

Soon shall my eyes behold Thee,
With rapture, face to face;
One half hath not been told me
Of all Thy power and grace:
Thy beauty, Lord, and glory,
The wonders of Thy love,
Shall be the endless story
Of all Thy saints above. AMEN.

Foster

for a closer walk with God,
Calm and heavenly frame,
Light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

In peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
They have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from Thy throne,
And worship only Thee.

Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest;
I hate the sins that made Thee mourn,
And drove Thee from my breast.

So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

More love to Thee, O Christ,
More love to Thee!
Hear Thou the prayer I make
On bended knee;
This is my earnest plea,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

Once earthly joy I craved,
Sought peace and rest:
Now Thee alone I seek;
Give what is best;
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee!
More love to Thee!

Then shall my latest breath
Whisper Thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

Offertory Anthem

Around our way the palm trees and the
flow'rs!
Send forth their perfume on our festal day;
Jesus appears, He comes to dry our tears,
Already crowds approach and homage pay.

All nations sing and chant His praise,
Now let your voices join with ours and
anthems raise!
Hosanna! Glory to God!
Blessed is He Who comes bringing salvation!

His voice is heard, and nations at the sound
Have now regained that freedom sought in vain;
Humanity shall everywhere abound,
For light to all the world is given again.

Rejoice e'en thou, saints Jerusalem!
Thy children now sing the Redeemer's
name;
For by His grace the God of Bethlehem
Brings them new faith, and hope confirms
the same.

Offertory Anthem

Henry Parker

"Behold, thy King draws near the city gates!
Go forth, Jerusalem, with shout and song."
And, moved as by one thought, the people rise,
And hasten forth, a glad, tumultuous throng.

From out their peaceful village
Along the sunlit way,
A Prince of Peace leads onward
A pilgrim band this day.

Then lo! with shout triumphant
They hear the hillside ring
With shouts of crowds that hasten
To greet their Prophet King.
Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna!

And now as we meet Thee
Sing we Hosanna!

Saviour, we greet Thee,
Redeemer, Lord and King!

He rides as Israel's rulers
Once rode in kingly state.
The palm leaves wave around Him,
The people throng the gate.

Rejoice, O Golden City!
Let loud Hosannas ring,
While through thy streets He rideth,
Thy Saviour and thy King.
Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna!

From henceforth blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for they rest from their labors.

Verily, I say unto you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. For now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept. Hallelujah. Amen.

Christus Resurrexit! .....Ravanello

This interesting composition depicts the resurrection of Christ and sunrise on Easter morning. The repeated trumpet call rhythmically sounding the salutation: "Christ is Risen, He is Risen, indeed," reminds us that it was as common for the people of Latin countries to greet each other with these words on Easter morning as it is for us to use the familiar Christmas greeting on Christmas day.

Springtime .....Hollins

Easter Morning on Mt. Rubidoux .....Gaul

Every Easter, in California, the townspeople at dawn ascend the heights of Mt. Rubidoux, where an impressive service is held. This number, by a well-known Pittsburgh organist, pictures daybreak, the town bell joyously ringing, the procession of the people and concludes with the triumphant Choral: "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones."

Who is like unto Thee, O Lord, among the gods? Who is like unto Thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

The same stone which the builders refused is become the headstone in the corner.

This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes.

Offertory Anthem

The King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever. Amen.

See how Thy foes their banners are unfurling!
Lord, while their darts envenomed they are hurling,
Thou canst preserve us.

Lord, Thou canst help when earthly armor faileth;
Lord, Thou canst save when deadly sin assaileth;
Lord, o'er Thy Church nor death nor hell prevaieth,
Grant us Thy peace, Lord!

Grant us Thy help till backward they are driven;

Offertory Anthem

Lord of our life, and God of our salvation,
Star of our night, and hope of every nation,
Hear and receive Thy Church's supplication,
Lord God Almighty.

See round Thine Ark the hungry billows curling!
See how Thy foes their banners are unfurling!
Lord, while their darts envenomed they are hurling,
Thou canst preserve us.

Lord, Thou canst help when earthly armor faileth;
Lord, Thou canst save when deadly sin assaileth;
Lord, o'er Thy Church nor death nor hell prevaieth,
Grant us Thy peace, Lord!

Grant us Thy help till backward they are driven;
Grant them Thy truth, that they may be forgiven;
Grant peace on earth, and after we have striven,
Peace in Thy heaven. Amen.

Soldiers of Christ, arise
And put your armor on;
Strong in the strength which God
supplies
Through His eternal Son.

Strong in the Lord of Hosts.
And in His mighty power;
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.

Stand then in His great might,
With all His strength endued;
And take to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God.

From strength to strength go on,
Wrestle, and fight, and pray;
Tread all the powers of darkness
down,
And win the well-fought day.

That having all things done,
And all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome, through Christ
alone,
And stand complete at last.

To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit ever blest,
The One in Three, the Three in One.
Be endless praise addressed.

Offertory Anthem

Shelley

The King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever. Amen.

Phillips Brooks

was born in Boston, December 13, 1835. He was a graduate of Harvard University in 1855, and the Virginia Theological Seminary in 1859. In that same year, he was made a deacon, and was ordained a priest in 1860.

Phillips Brooks' first parish in Philadelphia was the Church of the Advent, where he was Rector from 1859 to 1861. In 1862 he became Rector of Church of the Holy Trinity, where he remained until 1869. He then went to Trinity Church in Boston, continuing his outstanding work there until 1891.

On October 14, 1891, he was consecrated Bishop of Massachusetts. After a brief but great Episcopate, he died in Boston, January 23, 1893.

United War Chest

Once again, we have the opportunity of contributing to a united campaign, thus assuming our part of the responsibility for our various charitable enterprises. Because we are all so familiar with the work that has been accomplished for the common good by the concerted efforts of our people, it is not necessary to list the various participants. But we do know that by pooling our energy and money, much can be done for the hospitals, institutions and charitable organizations which would be impossible through individual effort.

And now the campaign has been extended to include the various activities for Service men and women and their families. This is a very worth-while part of the campaign, but does not curtail the work of the original program.

It's our job! So let us all do our utmost, and give to the limit of our ability. YOU, TOO, CAN FIGHT—BY GIVING!!
